CANYON PARTY POPULAR.

Ladd Canyon People Have Enjoyable Event—Other Items.

Ladd Canyon, Dec. 6.—(Special)—The necktie social which was given at the school house Monday evening was a grand success in every detail. The school children rendered a very good program that was appreciated by all. The house was packed with people and everyone seemed to enjoy themselves. It was decided to charge 25 cents for the baskets instead of ten cents as was formerly stated and a fat sum of money was taken in which will be given to the Ladd Canyon Sabbath school.

Miss Carrie Low, of La Grande, has been visiting here since Saturday with Miss Frankie Peebler, and was in attendance at the necktie social.

Miss Verdi Graham spent last week at North Powder visiting with relatives and friends.

Quite a good many of the young folks of this neighborhood attended the play at Grange hall last Friday evening, which was entitled, "The Old Maids' Convention." The play was made up with a large number of characters and was considered a good production.

Rex Conaway is confined to his home with a very badly bruised limb. The accident occurred which Mr. Conaway was up in Ladd Canyon. A bunch of cattle belonging to J. A. Russell, of La Grande, on an upper grade, started a huge rock to rolling which struck Mr. Conaway just above the ankle. He saw the rock coming with terrific speed but could not get entirely out of the way in time. However he is to be complimented upon being fortunate enough to escape as well as he did.
