Election of a city ticket means more than some will admit. A number argue that it will make no difference if the socialists are elected here, but those very same people will find out if socialism should prevail.

No, you cannot afford to vote the socialist ticket. Think it over carefully before you decide the matter. The reasons are many and varied which give a preponderance of evidence why La Grande must not go socialist.

The action of the business people of La Grande in passing the resolution night before last and the action of the mayor in issuing his proclamation do not mean that people are not welcome in La Grande. It means the reverse. All are welcome, but the rough stuff must be cut out once and for all.

The county court looks favorably on erecting a bridge across the river at the city park, which is a fine thing to do. There are few prettier spots in the whole northwest than the road leading to the city park and to beauty it means an added asset to the city which in time will show its value.

Already lineup for county offices is beginning. It will be noticed on the news pages that the democrats contemplate bringing out Frank Phyl for sheriff if he will stand for the nomination.

The Chicago butter and egg board boosted the price of butter two cents a pound two days before Thanksgiving. That's not only spreading it on, but rubbing it in, as well.
