NEEDLE CLUB IS SKILLED

Novel Contest at Starkey Brings Awards to Winners.

Starkey, Ore., Dec. 12.—(Special)—The little girl's fancy work contest ended Dec. 7th. The pieces of work were all done so nicely that the judges found it very difficult to award the prizes. On the first prize, a silver thimble, Edith Burnett and Flossie Burnett were tied, so had recourse to drawing, the lot falling to Edith Burnett. On the second prize, a stamped apron, Eunice Alden and Vada Briggs were tied, the lot falling to Vada Briggs. Priscilla Alden, Eva Briggs and Ruby Briggs handed in nice work and the Needlecraft club gives them all great praise and thanks for their perserverance and good work. The Needlecraft club will have a Christmas tree at the school house, December 25th. All are cordially invited.

Move Up, Please

You have asked yourself, "Why does the man next to me advance?" You think you work as hard as he, and you do. You earn as much, too. Good, so far. But you SPEND MORE! There's the difference. Simmer it all down and it becomes a matter of training. Training in habits of thrift. One large eastern manufacturing company marks those men for promotion who have shown ability to save money. The savings book with the bank is by far the best evidence to this end. It tells exactly how the saving ability has been cultivated. The saver proves his ability to manage his own business. No wonder his employer marks him for advancement!
