PERSONALS.

Rev. J. M. Dressler of Imbler was in the city today having dental work done.

News from Baker to local Eastern Star members say the Worthy Matron Mrs. Moore, died there yesterday. She was well known in La Grande.

H. C. Cochran of Union, Chas. Hall of Baker, S. T. Booth, a constable of Elgin, Sam Sturgill, of Palmer Junction and H. O. Wagner of Enterprise were among some of the guests at the Savoy last night.

Attorney James W. Crawford, son of Attorney General A. M. Crawford of Salem, was in the city last night, the guest of his classmate, Attorney Robert Eakin, Jr. The attorneys have the same alma mater, Willamette, and are old-time cronies. Mr. Crawford returned to Salem this forenoon.

Grand Chancellor Wighman of Salem and Lou Stinson, grand keeper of records and seals of the Knights of Pythias in Oregon were in the city this morning on their way to Union. They were accompanied by George Lindgren of Elgin and the party will return to La Grande tomorrow, go to Wallawa county and return to La Grande again next Monday.

Frank (Pat) Connors, at present sign writer and advertising manager for the N. K. West department store, leaves Saturday night for Anaconda,

Mont., where he assumes the head management of a big store similar in many respects to the West establishment. Mr. Connors came to La Grande from the Willamette valley about three years ago and has long since become prominent socially, fraternally and commercially. He will take charge of his new position immediately after reaching the Montana city.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS ELECT.

Local Council Holds Annual Election Here Last Evening.

Knights of Columbus, La Grande council No. 1566, met last night and elected officers for the ensuing year.
The elections were:

Grand Knight, J. H. Pearce; Deputy Grand Knight, J. F. Corbett; Chancellor, M. B. Donohue; Lecturer, W. H.
Casey; Warden, Ed Donohue; Inside Guard, William Pearce; Outside Guard, Lee Bellinger; Secretary, N. Desillet; Treasurer, F. L. Meyers; Trustees, L.
Ferguson, P. A. Foley and Fred Dutil.

General Reyes Found.

Washington, D. C. Dec. 14. — The state department has located General Reyes, but will not molest him as he is under bond to appear in the federal court at Laredo. Officials refuse to divulge his whereabouts.
