ALUMNI WILL MEET HIGHS

OLD TIME STARS TO DON BASKET-BALL TOGS.

The Two Beans, Geddes, Carpy, Williamson and Others to Play Highs.

Snappy basketball will be the lot of followers of that pastime next Thursday night when the annual alumni-high school game is played at the high school gymnasium. The game was arranged for hurriedly but on account of the deep interest taken it is generally believed that the crowd will be large and the interest keen. That the contest will be no laughing affair is assured from the lineup of the alumni. Joe and Lowell Williamson, Carpy an erstwhile star forward, Geddes, Victor and Aral Bean, two old timers—the last three being mainstays of the fast city team this winter, are some of the men that will be seen in the lineup. Children may also be out in togs and consequently the local high school will meet the fastest aggregation that can be gotten together in such short order. All the alumni players need no introduction and that the youngsters who represent the school will have to show more pepper and snap than against Imbler is manifestly true.

This contest will not interfere in any way with the game with North Powder the following Saturday night.
