DICK JONES, END MAN

WILL APPEAR IN STELLAR ROLE WITH ELKS.

Given Special Preference to Be Induced Into Minstrelsy.

W. R. Jones, prominent business man and Elk, has found it impossible to resist the temptation, and will appear as an end man at the Elks' minstrels on next Wednesday and Thursday. In agreeing to appear, however, Mr. Jones has insisted on being assigned the star's dressing room, a carriage must take him to and from the theatre on the nights of the show

Until then I am going to remind you that the earlier you look after these conditions the less trouble you will have. It will give you more comfort to keep the teeth right in the first place than to have them treated and filled after conditions have become such that you MUST have something done. At the risk of incurring your displeasure I am going to suggest that you get the advice of a competent dentist NOW.

Several new singers joined the minstrel company last night and some new talent in the dancing line went through their parts. Tonight at 8:30 they meet again for rehearsals when some new work will be given out.

If you have been using oil lamps, you will appreciate the great convenience of electric lights, once you have tried them. There is no artificial light that approaches electricity in brilliance, beauty, healthfulness and convenience. It removes the danger, dirt and drudgery always attendant on the use of any other illuminant. Poor light is the cause of seventy-five per cent of all eye troubles. I noticed that the kidney secretions were highly colored and painful in passage and I thus knew that my kidneys were at fault. The use of one box of Doan's Kidney Pills toned up my kidneys and caused the backache to cease. I am grateful to Doan's Kidney Pills for what they did for me."
