MONSTER SHOW AT MINSTREL

The mammoth minstrel show, which the Elks of La Grande will "pull off" on next Wednesday and Thursday, will be the biggest thing of its kind ever pulled off in La Grande. This is to be the real thing in minstrelsy, showing both the up-to-date and the old-time minstrels. The first part showing the up-to-date kind, will present a most beautiful stage setting with the orchestra, chorus, soloists and men arrayed in gorgeous costumes.
They will introduce some really new jokes, catchy song and clever marching numbers.

In the second part of the show the real old time southern minstrels will be presented, with special scenery showing the Mississippi river by moonlight, the 14 soft shoe dancers going through their plantation steps, while Ed Donohue will do some clever buck

Norman Desilet, singing "The Railroad Rag" at the Elks' minstrels.

dancing number. One of the big features in this act will be Nate Audrey, who is a "wizard" on the banjo and his banjo solos will be one of the big numbers of the show. A quartet of singers will also appear in this act and render some real old time negro melodies. The sale of seats will open Monday at Van Buren's.

GERALD MOORE IN PLAY.

Takes Important Role in Milton School Play This Week.

The Freewater Times says this of Gerald Moore a former La Grande high school student:

Next Friday evening the sophomore class of the high school will entertain the students and faculty by the production of one of the most elaborate dramas that ever came off Broadway entitled "The Christmas Biscuit." The plot hinges on Santa Claus eating the Christmas biscuit of a newly wedded couple which caused him to swell so largely that he stuck in the chimney.
The biscuit is tough, but the play is not. Gerald Moore is leading man and Basile Freitag is the "star." These actors will be assisted by Dwight Parker, Wayne Brinker, Jessie McLeod, Goldie Grove and Grace Armstrong.
Roccoe Smith also has a speaking part coming on the stage at one period and singing, "Ah," which gives him ample
