Yuletide Gladdens Many Homes

Hard times may prevail elsewhere but the number of Christmas trees and the volume of holiday business done belies the statement. Commencing yesterday and continuing until Monday night Hans Kringle will reign supreme in La Grande. Christmas trees galore, kind acts of charity toward the needy, tree entertainment at the theatres for the young people—all this is provided for and it is doubtful if Christmas has ever been so universally observed as it has indications of being in La Grande commencing last night. Christmas carols, anthems, solos and best of all the good old-fashioned songs by the Sunday school classes will ring out on the Christmas atmosphere. Many hearths will find sons and daughters home for the first time in many months and everywhere pervades good will on earth and peace toward men. If any poor family is overlooked it will simply be because those with charitable purses have not been able to find them. A few of the events making this a genuine Christmas follow:

Boys' City to Be Shown.

"The Boys' City" is the title of the feature film to be run at the Isis for the benefit of all boys of the city between the ages of 10 and 16, when they are to be the guests of A. B. Cherry. This will cost the boys nothing and what is more, the business men and professional men of the city are urged to be present for the occasion too. It commences at 10 o'clock Monday morning. The film shows how the boy's city is governed, how the boys select their mayor and council, their camping headquarters and in every inch of the film is something of interest to the boys. To those who are fostering the boy's scout plan for this city next summer the film will give a fine inkling of how the work is done. "Come on you boys," is the advance notice from Mr. Cherry who is to be the host
