If you have been using oil lamps, you will appreciate the great convenience of electric lights, once you have tried them.

There is no artificial light that approaches electricity in brilliance, beauty, healthfulness and convenience. It removes the danger, dirt and drudgery always attendant on the use of any other illuminant.

Poor light is the cause of seventy-five per cent of all eye troubles. If you read, sew or study at night, protect your eyesight and your health by using electric lights. Rates on application. Main 34.
