NEW CHIEF IN POLICE CHAIR

J. H. McLACHLEN TAKES OVER POLICE DEPARTMENT.

John Walden Retires to Public Life—Night Men to Be Named.

John H. Walden today is a private citizen and his chief of police badge is attached to the uniform of J. H. McLachlen, elected at the last municipal election. Walden retired last night at midnight, and is busy today making out his annual report. The new chief is duly installed upon his term of office.

Selection of night men will come up tonight and just who is going to be who remains to be seen. Several men, including John Walden, the ex-chief and Ed Brady are prominently mentioned for the places and as it is necessary that selections be made early it is probable the new council will make its selection tonight.

Appointments Tonight Outlined.

Mayor Church has in hand appointments to be made tonight including the different heads of departments. Who they will be is conjecture entirely but it is generally believed that the appointments to be made will be ratified, yet there is always the likelihood of a "flyup" and the appointments may drag out as they did last year before final ratification.
