COMMENCING MONDAY CHURCHES WILL HOLD MEETINGS.

The annual week of prayer, which five church will unite in observing, will after being introduced by appropriate sermons in the churches next Sunday, be opened on Monday evening at the Central Church of Christ. All who are willing to unite in prayer to God for our city and the world, are cordially invited.

All the members of the Central Church of Christ and the friends who meet with us are cordially invited to a "get together" social meeting of the congregation this evening at 7:30. The gathering is intended for promoting the mutual acquaintances and good fellowship of members and friends, for learning more about the church work and for laying plans for the new year. The ladies will serve light refreshments. Come early; do not fail to come.

Hook Meets Disappointment.

Washington, Jan. 3.—President Taft today took formal cognizance of the protests against the appointment of Justice William Hook of Kansas to be associate justice of the United States supreme court. He told Congressman Curtis of Kansas, Hook's sponsor, that he is now considering the name of Justice Swayne of the supreme court of New Jersey for the vacancy. His statement is taken to indicate that the president was forced to reconsider his decision concerning Hook because of the opposition and had planned to break all senate precedents and hold up the nomination.

Long Session in Sight.

Washington, Jan. 3.—That congress will be in session when the presidential campaign begins and the national convention is over, was the prediction of both party leaders today when congress resumed its session after the holidays' recess. Congressman Mann, of Illinois, predicted it would ramble along until October or November. Underwood said: "We have many things to do. It will be a long siege but we are going to stay until the things are done."

The senate leaders expect an adjournment before summer. The tariff probably will be the first big measure on the house calendar. The ways and means committee is preparing a report on the bill for revision of the iron and steel schedules next week.
