NORTH POWDER LEAGUE FORMS

MISS MAY IS PRESIDENT OF THE CHAPTER.

Rev. Rudd Organizes Chapter With Much Success.

North Powder, Jan. 4.—(Special)—On Thursday night the young people of North Powder gathered at the Methodist church for a good old fashioned social, and to organize a chapter of the Epworth League. In business session the following officers were elected:

President—Miss Ethaline May.
First Vice President—Miss Minnie Bertram.

Second and Third Vice President—Miss Effie Talley.

Fourth Vice President—Miss Bernice Wicks.

Secretary—Miss Lulla Dalton.

Treasurer—O. B. May.

Organist—Miss Ethel Talley.
This chapter will be one of the 21 in Eastern Oregon, which constitute the La Grande District Epworth League.

Games and refreshments were much enjoyed, and the young people disbanded, feeling that they had had a pleasant time and had accomplished an end. Rev. Rudd of Island City was the "engineer" in charge and saw to it that the new chapter got under way properly.

Treasurer's Call for City Warrants.
