CONFLICTS IN RACING AVOIDED

MEETING OF BIG CIRCUIT MANAGERS TOMORROW.

Old Tracks to Be Dropped and New Ones Added Say Rumors.

New York, Jan. 8.—When the stewards of the Grand Circuit get together at the Waldorf-Astoria tomorrow for their annual meeting several important matters will come up in the forming of the major racing circuit for the light harness horse season of 1912. At least two applications from new clubs will be received, the Columbus matter will be threshed out and several other important subjects will be discussed.

Columbus will be welcomed back to the fold and Lexington probably will be taken in, which means that there will be no clashes over dates this year. Indianapolis and Goshen, which were included in the circuit last year, will be dropped. Pittsburg, which has not had professional racing in more than a quarter of a century, would like to see the Grand Circuit fliers at Brunot's Island next fall. The stewards seem to think well of the proposal and it is regarded as highly probable that Pittsburg may be taken in. Salem, N. H., which has in Rockingham Park one of the finest racing plants in the country, also is expected apply for membership, but as the racing game has not prospered in New England lately as in former years it is doubtful if Salem is allotted dates.

Of course Kalamazoo, Grand Rapids, the Detroit State Fair association, North Randall, Fort Erie, Syracuse, Readville and Hartford will remain as solid as ever and meetings at about the same time as last year will be held. Kalamazoo probably will be selected to open the circuit, with Grand Rapids, Detroit and Randall following in the order named.
