DOUBLE HEADER FRIDAY NIGHT

UNION GIRLS WILL CLASH WITH LOCAL GIRLS.

Boys' Team to Play Between Halves of Main Card at the Gym.

Girls' basketball will be introduced to La Grande the first time this season, when, tomorrow night, the La Grande girls meet the Union high school girls. Several weeks' practice has perfected the local co-eds to a degree where they are confident of giving Union a merry chase for first honors tomorrow night and all lovers of girls' basketball will see a good brand of the sport at the high school gym. The girls' game is called at 7:45 in order to permit the staging of a boys' game between halves. The Union high school boys will match strength, wits and agility with the local quintet and two games of far more than ordinary attraction will be staged. Immediately after the first half, which commences at 7:45 the boys will take the floor and alternate until both teams have played their fill. The fans will get their first line on the capabilities of the girls and will see a big improvement in the boys' team over former performances this year.
