SCHOOL TOWNS LOYAL HOSTS

EUGENE AND CORVALLIS ENTERTAIN VISITORS.

La Grande Delegations Received at Both Institutions.

Dealing with the reception of the La Grande merchants in Eugene and Corvallis, news dispatches from those two towns in the Oregonian read:

Oregon Agricultural College, Corvallis, Ore., Jan. 16.—A large delegation of Eastern Oregon business men stopped today to inspect the Oregon Agricultural college on their way to the State Association of Retail Merchants' convention, being held at Medford.

The visitors reached the campus at 9 o'clock and were taken through all the departments of the college, being shown all the laboratories and various work rooms. Drill was held at 11 o'clock, to enable the visitors to see this most interesting sight of undergraduate activity. The work that the college is carrying on and the methods which are being employed impressed the visitors in a most favorable manner.

Eugene, Or., Jan. 17.—The party of La Grande business men touring the state were guests last night at the annual banquet of the Merchants' Protective Association, postponed for a day for the convenience of the visitors. Members of the Commercial club were also present, bringing the number of diners to 150.

Retiring President W. A. Bell, of the Merchants' Association, was toastmaster, calling upon local business men and visitors in turn for short talks. Among the speakers for La Grande were Messrs Cochran, Collier, Pierce, Miller and Editor Bruce Dennis, and for Eugene were D. E. Yoran, President P. L. Campbell, of the University of Oregon; M. J. Duryea and D. C. Freeman.

The visitors from over the mountains were met at the train by a delegation of local business men, headed by President Duryea and Manager Freeman of the Commercial club, and W. A. Bell, O. E. Roberts and D. E. Yoran, of the Merchants' Protective Association.

After a few words of greeting the visitors were taken by trolley to Springfield, where the Commercial club of that city kept open house for an hour. Returning from Springfield the party visited the University of Oregon, and inspected the "plant" under the guidance of President Campbell and other members of the university faculty.

From 4 until 5 there was a reception at the rooms of the Eugene Commercial club, which almost every business man in this city attended.

The special car of the La Grande party was attached to the 6 o'clock south-bound passenger train this morning.

BAKER ORGAN DEDICATED

MRS. CORBETT OF LA GRANDE SINGS AT RECITAL.

New Pipe Organ at Baker Is Dedicated This Week.

(Baker Democrat.)

The first recital on the new pipe organ at St. Francis cathedral, was given last evening by Prof. Frederick W. Goodrich, of Portland, and his appropriate program was rendered by the master hand of the artist in a manner that thrilled and delighted the large audience.

It would be hard to choose any one number as worthy of special mention, as none were of the same class, a varied program bringing out all the wonderful combinations of the great instrument. Two of the simpler numbers, however, showed the beautiful soft toned effect of the pipes and their sweet harmony stirred his hearers deeply. The numbers were "The Answer," by Wostenholme, and "Nocturne in G" by Frysinger.

Preceding the recital, an appropriate talk on "Music" was given by Prof. Mullin, which served to put the audience in the proper frame of mind for what followed. Two choruses, by the MacDowell Club, accompanied by Mrs. Burke, served to strengthen the position of the organization in the local musical world as they were well sung and thoroughly enjoyed.

Mrs. Percy Breck and Mrs. Eugene Moore, who always please their hearers, were heard in solos, and Mrs. J. F. Corbett of La Grande, delighted her hearers with her beautiful rendition of Francis' "Ave Maria." Charles P. Murphy, as usual, sang only too little to satisfy the audience, but his one number was of a quality that made up for the lack of quantity.

To summarize briefly, the evening was indeed a musical treat, and many more as full of pleasure would be welcome. Prof. Goodrich will render another program this evening, so those who failed to hear the recital last evening have the opportunity to hear him at that time. Admission tonight will be 50 and 25 cents.

MOOSE HAVE GREAT NUMBERS

ORDER EXPLAINED IN CONSIDERABLE DETAIL

Gymnasium and Equipment Go With Lodges.

In view of the fact that over 500 Moose are coming to La Grande next Sunday, it is of interest to know something of the order.

The Loyal Order of Moose was founded in the state of Tennessee, Nov. 21, 1888, and today they have 892 lodges in the United States and Canada, with a membership of 853,000 in the United States and 354,000 in Canada, making a total membership of 1,207,000. The Loyal Order of Moose believe in clean athletics and every lodge in the United States and Canada has a fully equipped gymnasium room, baths, showers, etc. Portland with a membership of 4,700 has one of the best Moose homes on the coast, Seattle following with a membership of 4,100; Tacoma with a membership of 4,000; Olympia with a membership of 2,800; Spokane with a membership of 4,300; Los Angeles leading all with a large membership of 8,750, while Denver, Colo., has a membership of 7,090. Our sister towns like Pendleton with a membership of 650; Walla Walla, 870; Baker 350; Boise 3,000. These are just part of the cities named where there are Moose lodges and homes where a Moose of La Grande is liable to visit. The Moose orders support some of the largest and best bands and drill teams in the United States and Canada, the Seattle lodge at the time of the Potlatch had their own band of 50 pieces with 8,700 members of the Loyal Order of Moose in the parade. They carried away all the prizes and honors against all competitors that took part in the contests there. Their drill teams are considered the best in the country for fraternal men. Under open charter the initiation fee is $5.00, the dues are 75 cents per month and they pay all its members a sick benefit of $7.00 per week, free doctor for self and family, a funeral benefit of $100.00 in case of death, free use of the gymnasium, bath rooms and showers, reading rooms and all social rooms and halls that the lodge may possess. They already have an enrollment in La Grande of 250 members. Every member is out trying to make it 300 by the 21st day of January on which date the lodge will be installed in the K. of P. hall and in all probabilities the charter will be closed and then the initiation fee will be $25, so that anyone who wishes to enroll before the 21st under the open charter had best call and see Mr. Greene, organizer for the Loyal Order of Moose with headquarters at the Foley hotel or Jesse A. King at the Fam's King cigar factory, 106 Fir Street.

The liquor issue is expected to figure prominently in the state campaign in West Virginia this year. The state organizations of farmers and lumbermen have gone on record for prohibition, but the coal men, who control many votes, are said to oppose the proposed constitutional amendment.

Robert P. Bass, the first direct primary governor of New Hampshire and who is now mentioned for United States senator from the Granite state, is to be married in a few weeks to Miss Edith H. Bird, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Bird of East Walpole, Mass.
