Red Tape in Civil Service.

Chicago, Jan. 18.—(Special)—What a lot of red tape must be unwound before an army officer can accept an honorary position outside the army. Col. William C. Gorgas, in charge of the department of sanitation on the Panama canal zone discovered before he became third vice president of the National Drainage congress, organized last month in Chicago to meet first in New Orleans, April 10-13. A committee will accompany members of the Illinois Manufacturers' association on their trip to Panama to personally request the attestation of Col. Gorgas at the meeting. The correspondence concerning Col. Gorgas' election and his final acceptance with the approval of the secretary of war comprised seven letters and official documents; all on one sheet of letter paper placed out to the length of legal cap. Col. Gorgas was nominated for the position Dec. 8. The following day Edmund T. Perkins, acting president, forwarded to the secretary of war a letter asking official consent to the relation. When this letter was received by the war department a slip of paper was pasted to the end and the letter was folded, writing inside, so as to give four folds. On the first fold are a number of endorsements, showing briefly the contents of the letter and the writer, his address and the date; also the date of receipt, Dec. 11, and the file number, the adjutant general's office stamp and file number, and the surgeon general's stamp and file number. On the second fold is the first endorsement by the adjutant general. Below this appears "2nd endorsement, war department, office of surgeon general, December 14, 1912. Respectfully returned to the adjutant general of the army, recommending that Col. W. C. Gorgas, medical corps, be notified of his election as third vice president of the National Drainage congress." On the third fold is the third endorsement from the adjutant general, dated "December 14, 1911. Respectfully referred to Colonel William C. Gorgas, medical corps, Culbra, canal zone, Panama, to note and return. By order of the secretary of war." On the third fold is also the fourth endorsement as follows: "Department of sanitation, office of the chief sanitary officer, Ancon, C. Z., December 28, 1911. Respectfully returned. I desire to express my appreciation of the honor in being elected third vice president, and to inform Mr. Perkins of my acceptance. W. C. Gorgas, chief sanitary officer." A cablegram had been sent to Col. Gorgas at the same time the letter was written to the secretary of war, so that he knew what it was all about when the document reached him through the circuitous method.

Cady to Head Western Golf Bodies

Chicago, Ill., Jan. 19. — Delegates representing the many clubs affiliated with the Western Golf association are arriving in Chicago to attend the association's annual meeting tomorrow. The past season was the most prosperous in the history of the association and the annual meeting will be in the nature of a love feast to celebrate the satisfactory condition of affairs and the bright outlook for the future. The business of the meeting will include the election of officers, the allotment of the annual championship events and the consideration of several proposed amendments to the constitution and by laws. John D. Cady of Rock Island is slated to succeed William Heyburn of Louisville as president of the association. The Denver Country club is an applicant for the amateur championship and the Idlewild club of Chicago probably will be awarded the open tournament.

Society and Clubs

Sadie Orr-Dunbar, general federation secretary of Oregon having in charge the sale of red cross stamps during the past campaign, compliments La Grande warmly for the interest taken in the sale. La Grande's women's club supervised the work free of charge and disposed of $28.88 in La Grande and Island City. The store to make the biggest sale was the Newlin Book and Stationery company which recorded a sale of $9.10. The total is the biggest sale La Grande has yet reached. Writing to Mrs. Stout Mrs. Orr-Dunbar says in part:

"Many warm thanks for the draft of $27.88 and stamps for $1.00. We are very grateful to you, Dr. Underwood and all those who aided. The criticism of the design has to be met with each year. Last year the public thought too much attention was given to the wording, 'American Red Cross.' This year there was some objection to the prominence of the red cross and the small picture in the background.

With the exception of a few cities in Oregon our sales will not be quite so large as they were last year. I now have $829.96. Through you I again wish to thank La Grande for its share in the good work."

The Neighborhood club held a delightful session at the cozy home of Mrs. Guy Ellis on Jefferson avenue. Needlework and conversation made the afternoon pass all too quickly. Delicious refreshments were served during the afternoon.

"Resolved, that the Oregon Federation of Women's clubs adopt the last Wednesday of January as Scholarship Loan Fund day, when every club in the state is asked to do something to increase the fund which is being loaned young women to assist in their education."

Such was the wording of a resolution adopted at the state convention of federated clubs in La Grande two or three years ago and in fulfillment of the principles of that resolution, the Neighborhood club next Tuesday will celebrate scholarship loan fund day. The event will be held at the home of Mrs. J. D. Stout, president of the club, corner Sixth and O avenue and all members of the club are asked to come and bring friends. Also anyone interested is very cordially invited. Mrs. Albert Hunter is chairman of the committee and she reports that a short program will be rendered, after which the afternoon will be very informal. The funds thus collected by the various clubs of the state will go to the furtherance of the loan fund plan, whereby needed women are loaned money to obtain an education with Annually these events have been popular in La Grande and doubtless will be so again this year. The event commences at 2:30 and at 5 o'clock refreshments will be served.

Complimentary to and in the nature of a farewell to Mrs. D. Bay, who with her husband left yesterday for Portland to make their future home after almost a life-long residence in La Grande, Mrs. H. M. Bay and Mrs. Frank Bay Wednesday afternoon entertained informally a score or so of Mrs. Bay's intimate friends at the H. M. Bay residence. A two-course luncheon was served and the guest of honor and associate guests had a very delightful afternoon, albeit it was marked with regret at the departure of Mrs. Bay, who has been a prominent figure in Eastern Star activities in La Grande and has a host of warm friends here. The guest list is:

Mrs. McWhirter, Mrs. McCall, Mrs. Geo. H. Currey, Mrs. Slater, Mrs. M. Wood, Mrs. Schilke, Mrs. Bush, Mrs. Worstell, Mrs. Gulling, Mrs. Susan Robinson, Mrs. Faulk, Mrs. Clevinger, Mrs. L. H. Russell, Mrs. Goodnough, Mrs. Zuber, Mrs. Penington, Mrs. Childers, Mrs. Mackey, Mrs. D. Crawford, Mrs. McCloud, Mrs. Andrews, Mrs. C. W. Noyes, Mrs. Wade, Mrs. Bloch, Miss Olive Slater and Miss Mary Warnick.

Invitations are out for an informal little dancing party at Honan hall tonight when the nucleus of what is soon to become an extensively patronized University club, will delve into social realms for the edification of about 50 guests. At this time the invitations are not issued to university men alone, though such a social function is probably in store, once the club gets under permanent organization. A large number of banners and university emblems will decorate the brand new walls of Honan hall and the individuals behind the party will no doubt be crowned with success for Honan hall is a delightful house for just such parties. To this party may properly be accredited the birth of the University club movement for the now popular scheme was given its inception at the time tonight's dance dance was first outlined.

Complimentary to Miss Helen Gates of Hillsboro, who has been a guest this week with Mrs. Herman Siegrist, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph J. Carr and Mr. and Mrs. Herman Siegrist will entertain next Monday evening at dancing in the Elks auditorium. The invitation list is quite large and the function will probably be the stellar society gathering of the coming week. Miss Gates, in whose honor the party is given, is a popular young lady of Hillsboro.

For the third time the La Grande fire department demonstrated its social proclivities last Wednesday night when at its third annual dancing party the department was host at the Elks' hall to a very delightful dancing party. The crowd was not as cosmopolitan as sometimes characterizes non-invitation parties and neither was it so large that dancing was difficult. About 75 couples were present to partake of the evening's pleasures and this they did to a marked degree. Many who could not attend purchased tickets nevertheless so that the dance was a huge financial success as well as an exceptionally pleasing event from a social standpoint. It was simply another of those delightful parties that various organizations have tendered the public during the winter season.

The Lyle Tuesday Musicals decided at its last meeting to give a children's musical at the club rooms on Saturday afternoon, Jan 27th, for the benefit of the scholarship loan fund. All members and friends of the musicals are cordially invited to attend. A silver offering will be received. The program is being arranged by Mrs. Frank J. Maguire and Miss Nell Young and will appear later.

"Harmony," the subject under discussion at the last meeting of the Lyle Tuesday Musicals was well handled by Mesdames Silverthorn, Birnie, P. S. Robinson and Vincent Palmer, and those in attendance felt that the afternoon was well spent. Mrs. Carlock, one of the leaders, was unable to be present on account of illness. This left Mrs. Frank Toney to lead the meeting, which she did in an able way.

One of the prominent social affairs in store for next week will be the luncheon to the Neighborhood club which Mrs. Chet H. Bidwell of Island City will be hostess. The luncheon occurs on Thursday.

Mrs. Turner Oliver and Mrs. George Palmer entertained the evening section of the Kaffee Klatch last evening at the Oliver home. Card favors went to C. M. Lockwood and Mrs. Fred L. Meyers.

Dr. and Mrs. M. K. Hall were host and hostess to the Decum club this week and card honors were won by Mrs. T. J. Scroggin.

Mrs. T. N. Murphy entertained the Five Hundred club this week, favors being won by Mrs. M. B. Donohue.

The New Idea club was pleasingly entertained this week by Mrs. Earl Zundell.

Miss Etta Foley was hostess to the La Jaunesse club this week.
