SPUDS "KINGS" OF MARKETS

A SLUMP IS DEEMED BOUND TO COME.

Importation of Potatoes Will Spell Lower Prices for 1912.

Chicago, Jan. 23.—(Special)—High potatoes now mean cheap potatoes when the next crop is harvested, according to Chicago market figures showing that in previous years an enormous increase in acreage of potatoes followed extremely high prices. The potatoes imported to supply the demand this year have established a new factor that threatens to ruin the hopes of all who hope to make a fortune in 1912 by planting their farms to potatoes and wringing a fabulous price for them from the consumer. Nearly a million bags, 3,000,000 bushels, had been imported up to January first. Irish and English potato growers are not likely to forget this market after their taste of high prices. "Indications are that the lowly spud will have first place as an agricultural gold mine—until the next crop will swamp the market," said one prophet. The government reports put the farm value per bushel this year almost 50 per cent high than for 1910, the average price quoted being 79.9 cents as compared with 55.7 cents in 1910 and 54.1 cents in 1909.

How Parchment Got Its Name.

The Greeks of Pergamum are said to have first prepared parchment from the skins of the goat or sheep. They were curried, deprived of all fat, thinned uniformly by the knife, dyed or whitened and finally rubbed down with pumice stone to a smooth and even surface. Called pergamenum from the city of its origin, the new material became parchment in archaic French and parchment in the English tongue.—National Magazine.

Squeal and Bark.

"Nothing lost here but the squeal," declared the pork packer. "Are you as economical in conducting your business?" "Just about," answered the visitor. "I'm in the lumber business. We waste nothing but the bark."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

It Fell.

"What's that racket down there?" shouted the old gentleman from the head of the stairs. "I think," promptly replied his daughter, "that it was Bob dropping his voice when he proposed to me."—Detroit Free Press.

Reassuring Him.

"But," said the absolutely bald old party, "can I be assured that this horse is quite gentle?" "My dear sir," replied the tricky dealer, "he wouldn't hurt a hair of your head."—Catholic Standard and Times.
