PERSONALS

Miss Ethel Gulling of Portland arrived this morning and is spending the day here with relatives.

H. B. Lee of Portland, D. W. Jackson of Umatilla, B. E. Shaffer of Elgin, were guests at the Savoy last night.

Among the Sommer guests last night were J. S. Baker of Portland, W. W. Fennel of Kansas City, Oscar Kuhn of Ogden and J. T. Fink of Portland.

Island City News.

Last Monday evening the Brotherhood recently organized, held its second business meeting. At this meeting four vice presidents were elected as follows: First, Jos. L. Perry; second, Nathan Perrine; third, Prof. Arant, fourth, Leo Crouter. Charles Volsinkler was elected treasurer to succeed Mr. Perry, who resigned to accept the first vice presidency. Two important steps were taken at this meeting. The organization voted to rent the second floor of the old M. & M. building for gymnasium and club room purposes. Monday night, Feb. 12th, was set for the next meeting at which the charter will be closed. Great plans are being made for this meeting which is to include a big supper and a fine program. At this writing one outside speaker has already been engaged. H. S. Hamilton of Allice, who is district vice president of the brotherhood. While the affair is under the direction of the local brotherhood, they are to be assisted by the ladies of the community. In fact it is an event planned for the young men, young women, older men and older women of the community. Prof. Arant as chairman of the committee on arrangements for this event is planning a big time in Island City, on the evening of Feb. 12th.

The Local Princes K. M. enjoyed their second social evening Thursday at the home of Allen Hunter. After a short business session the following program was rendered:

Recitation—Allyn Hunter.
Story—Silas Simmons.
Recitation—Willie Perry.
Recitation—Frank Carroll.

A few songs were sung and then all filed out into the dining room. And such a big supper as was waiting there! You may judge of a boy's opinion of a supper by what he leaves. Fortunately for Mrs. Hunter the boys left the plates. It was pronounced the biggest and best supper the boys had enjoyed for many a long day. Soon after supper the boys left for their homes. Just outside one of the smaller boys was heard to say as a smile overspread his face, "And she said, 'Come Again!'"

Mr. and Mrs. Head are now residents of Island City.
Epworth League Bible Study class met Thursday night at the home of Mrs. A. R. Hunter.

On Monday evening, February 5th, Mrs. Unruh, president of the state W. C. T. U. is to speak at the Island City church. Mrs. Unruh is a well informed lady capable of interesting her audience in whatever subject she may choose. Everyone should hear her address next Monday evening.

Club Returns Thanks.

To the Elks' lodge which permitted the use of the auditorium for the banquet, to the male quartet and to Heacock's orchestra, and to the people of La Grande in general, I wish in behalf of the Commercial club to extend thanks for making the banquet of last evening such a thorough success. It was to be regretted that all calls for tickets to the banquet could not be satisfied but accommodations only permitted the selling of a certain number of plates, all of which were sold. Some failed to attend, leaving a few vacant chairs, but the plates were sold. The club only wishes it might have been possible to accommodate five hundred people for there was at least that number who desired to attend.

P. S. ROBINSON, President.

McManigal Near Destination.

Los Angeles, Feb. 3.—It is expected Ortie McManigal will arrive sometime today from Indianapolis. He will be the government's principal witness at the trials of Tivietmoe, Johannesen, Clancy and Munson who are charged with a nation wide dynamiting conspiracy.

Society and Clubs

It would be thoughtless to pass by last night's function at the Commercial club banquet without bringing it in close touch to society affairs of the dying week. With the monster numbers present it was impossible to avoid notice of the display of richly gowned women and the general tone of formality marking the dinner, even though this was not a necessary feature in the event, intended first and foremost to be informal. From its point of number the dinner will stand as a social event of no mean proportions.

Election of delegates to the National Women's club convention in San Francisco will take place at the Neighborhood club meeting next Tuesday. The state secretary writing to Mrs. J. D. Stout, president of the club reminds the members here that the elected person should not fail to attend as Oregon is trying to make a splendid showing at the national convention. This important matter will be one of the chief events of the Tuesday meeting, though there are other business matters. The program will vary slightly from that outlined in the yearbook. Mrs. C. A. Small will take the place of Miss Anson who is absent from the city. The study will be on English paintings and is made up of the following:

"Leighton," Mrs. Vincent Palmer.
"Burne-Jones," Mrs. Small.
"Alma-Tadema," Mrs. J. K. Wright.

The Milen girls held their weekly session this week on Wednesday night at the home of Miss Irene Murphy. Among other things discussed was the arrangements for the formal party to be given by that club on February 14 at which time they will aim to outdo all former efforts in their social career this winter. Elaborate decorations are under the planning and will culminate in something exceptional, it is said.

Mr. and Mrs. Hill very delightfully entertained a few of their friends with a dinner party, the event being in honor of Mr. Hill's birthday. A most sumptuous meal consisting of nine courses was served after which a very enjoyable evening was spent in social conversation and music. The evening will be one long to be remembered and each departing guest wished Mr. Hill many more such happy birthdays.

The miscellaneous recital given at the Lyle Tuesday Musicals last Tuesday afternoon was one of the best programs given so far this season. The ladies in charge deserve much credit. On Feb. 13th Mrs. Chester Newlin and Miss Pina Richardson will lead in the study of "Women in Music." The members will please keep this date in mind and if possible attend. This meeting will be followed by another recital on Feb. 27th.

En Bagers' Duzen made up of 13 popular young men, will entertain at Honan hall this evening at dancing. The same group gave a pleasant party a few weeks since at the same place and this event will be important in the younger set. The patronesses for the evening are: Mrs. H. W. Bohnenkamp, Mrs. H. C. Grady and Mrs. C. T. Bacon.

The 15th annual ball given by the Elks lodge, No. 433, will usurp the glory attained by the other 14 if committees having the affair in charge are guessing right. Invitations will be out soon for the banner event in Elksdom-social life in La Grande to be held on February 22, the annual date. The usual formality that goes with the annual event will mark this one.

From 8:30 until 11:30 last Saturday evening about 30 couples were splendidly entertained at Honan hall when Ralph Russell, Glenn Conkey, Jess Andrews and Kenneth Bartlett entertained at dancing. The guests were all young people and the unanimous verdict is that the young hosts handled the event very commendably.

Mrs. H. M. Bay this evening entertains in honor of her sister, Miss Ethel Gulling of Portland and Miss Dorris el Gulling of Portland. Miss Gulling arrived this morning from Portland and will be an over-Sunday guest with Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Gulling and Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Bay.

The annual meeting and election of officers of the progressive young order of the C. O. P. E. will be held at the home of Miss Alice Snook on next Monday evening. A short program will be rendered after which a banquet will be served.

Invitations are out for the next Knights of Single Life party to be given at the Elks' hall on February 8. These "Knights" have already given one highly successfully party this winter.

Miss Marjorie McCall was hostess to the La Jaunesse club this week, the "hemstitch" members meeting on Thursday evening.

Mrs. J. J. Carr entertained the afternoon section of the Kaffee Klatch yesterday.

The Decora club met last Monday night with Mr. and Mrs. Lute Doro. Mrs. Robert Newlin won the honors.

Baden-Powell in Washington.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 3.—Gen. Sir Baden-Powell arrived in the capital this morning for a brief visit. This afternoon he reviewed the Boy Scouts of Washington and vicinity from the north portico of the white house with President Taft and Ambassador Bryce.

Variety is the Spice of Life.

New York, Feb. 3.—Detective William J. Burns is to be the principal speaker at the annual dinner of the Rockefeller Bible class, which will be given Monday evening in the Cafe Boulevard. The other speakers will include President Faunce of Brown university and George W. Perkins, the financier.

The party who through mistake wore off a fur from the Commercial Club banquet at the Elks' hall last evening, will kindly leave the same either at the Elks' club rooms or at the Observer office. It is a McKibbin fur neck piece and will be described in detail by owner if desired as the local dealer who sold it has complete record of it.
