"THE LADY FROM THE SEA" — THAMHOUSER

In no reel of motion pictures has the superiority of the cinematograph to the speaking stage been demonstrated more forcibly than in this "Thamhouser" production. The very first scene strikes the keynote of the play.

The moving picture public is sick unto death of the conventional. A departure from the beaten path is a service to the industry at large.

"COWGIRLS' PRANKS' BISON"

Scenes clear as a bell. A bevy of lively pretty girls (Miss Little and Little Miss Grandin leading them.) They steal the boys' clothes and wear them. The boys wear the girls' skirts. It's screaming comedy.

"KEEPING MABEL HOME"

You'll laugh and you'll find out why Mabel was kept at home. Whenever the "Majestic" puts out a farce it's a good one.

DARROW MUST ANSWER CHARGE

JUDGE OVERRULES ALL DILATORY TACTICS.

Case Not Set for February—Labor Attorney Pleads Today.

Los Angeles, Feb. 3.—Superior Judge McCormick will try Attorney Darrow according to presiding Judge Hutton today. He will probably be appointed in McCormick's court Monday.

Earl Rogers, counsel for Darrow, filed today a motion to set aside and quash two indictments charging Darrow with bribery. The motion is based on the grounds that the names of the witnesses whose testimony was presented to the county grand jury returning the bills, were not endorsed on the indictments. Presiding Judge Hutton of the superior court overruled it, saying that in his opinion the grand jury was legally constituted, and that the names of all witnesses were legally appended to the indictments. Rogers then filed demurrers to the sufficiency of the indictments. These were overruled. Darrow then pleaded not guilty. The case will be called for February 14, when the trial date is set.

Matty Baldwin and Pal Moore.

New Orleans, La., Feb. 3.—Matty Baldwin and Pal Moore, who were the principals in a sensational bout in New York several weeks ago, are to meet in a return engagement of 20 rounds in this city tomorrow afternoon. Baldwin was credited with a victory over Moore in the ten-round contest in New York, but Moore is confident that he can even the score in a bout at twice that distance. Local ring followers expect to see one of the fastest battles that has been pulled off in the Crescent City this winter.

SINGERS COMING.

Jubilee Singers to Appear at the Steward February Sixth.

The Dixie Jubilee singers are coming to the Steward Opera house February 6th.

The famous original Dixie quartet is a special feature and is always a favorite. Our prima donna was trampled by one of the best instructors of St. Louis, Mo. She has a lyric voice, and ranks with the best singers of her race. Our alto has been a student of Knoxville college; her voice is rich and charming and filled with sweetness.

Our Christian Umerier is fresh from cutonist she is fine, and is very entertaining and pleasing. She also has a the Tuskegee institute and as an eloquent, musical soprano voice.

Charles A. Hughes, first tenor; R. Taylor, second tenor; Wm. D. Gray, baritone; Geo. H. Watkins, basso; Legretta Henderson, prima donna; Jessie Watkins, alto; Fannie Hughes, soprano; Ida Slaytor, elocutionist and Christian Umerier.

Program consists of: Jubilee songs, plantation songs, negro melodies, camp meeting songs, negro lullabies, negro comic songs, cabin and river songs, ballads, ragtime songs, classic selections, sentimental songs.

Press comments follow: "The entertainment," says Rev. E. A. Smith pastor of Arleta Baptist church "was a restful delight from the first number until the last. I take pleasure in recommending them to any church and we hope to have the privilege to hear them at some future date."

The plaintive and religious music of the colored race, when properly rendered, not only amuses but touches the heart of the hearers. In this character of music the Jubilee singers are very effective. The members of this company, in addition to being musicians, are Christian ladies and gentlemen. Respectfully, H. W. Stone, General Secretary, Y. M. C. A., Portland, Oregon.

Dr. J. Whitcomb Brounger says: "The program was received with tremendous enthusiasm," "completely captured the audience," "are artists," "Have rich melodious voices and know how to use them." "Large crowd voted unanimously their endorsement and invited them to come again." "Hear them once and you will want to hear them again."

They give perfect satisfaction everywhere. Their solos, duets, quartets and choruses of old melodious plantation songs full the mind into sweet peace and cause the heart strings to loosen and make life worth living.
