Time was when electric lights were regarded as a luxury for the rich and the well-to-do.

The first electric lights, while a luxury and far superior to any lights then known, were very crude compared to the modern electric lights.

Wonderful progress has been made in electric lighting within the past five years—new inventions and discoveries have not only emphasized its great superiority, but have vastly increased uses and actually reduced its cost.

Rates are now so reasonable that no one need hesitate at the cost end, once you have used electricity, you will never be satisfied with anything else. For rates and information, phone Main 34.

GAME DRAWS LOCAL FANS

CHAMPIONSHIP CONTEST ON TOMORROW NIGHT.

Two Teams Seeking State Honors Will Clash on Local Floor.

Basketball fans are agog over the prospects of a snappy game here tomorrow night when Columbia college comes here to meet the city five. With only one defeat this year, and that by Pendleton early in the season, Columbia college has overcome that and is now out for the championship of Eastern Oregon, all classes with no exceptions, it will be up to the locals to show their best bib and tucker tomorrow night.

It is the ambition of local basketball fans to see the city team win the Eastern Oregon championship for all branches and to see the high school walk away with high school honors for this section. As tomorrow night's game will largely decide the city team's claims to Eastern Oregon honors, it is only to be expected that they will play their best and give La Grande a fine exhibition of basketball. The game starts at 8 o'clock and standing room will probably be at a premium.

Missionary Centennial.

Salem, Mass., Feb. 6.—A number of noted religious educators, divines and missionaries took part in a celebration held here today to commemorate the 100th anniversary of the ordination of Samuel Nott, Gordon Hall, Samuel Newell, Luther Rice and Adoniram Judson who were the first foreign missionaries sent out by any American religious body. The centennial exercises were held in the Tabernacle church where the five young men were ordained February 6, 1812.
