FIELDS BOOM ARRIVES HERE

MAN TO OPPOSE OLCOTT DEVELOPS FRIENDS IN THIS COUNTY

Will Start Off With a Long List of Loyal Supporters.

As a further indication that the time for making preliminaries in the political game is upon us, several petitions are now under circulation. Probably the one that is attracting as much attention as any is the petition of Frank Fields for secretary of state. Mr. Fields is the present county clerk of Multnomah county and to the surprise of many he has a number of warm supporters in this neck of the woods. He will be opposed by Benjie Olcott, hence the extraordinary attention to the Fields' petition. His claims to the office all seem to be worthy and his claim to the support of republicans seems to be in the same condition.

Every report that comes from Multnomah relative to the aspirant for secretary of state carries a glow of success that cannot be discounted, indicating that Fields is the man who has the strength in the big county. He has kept free from all cliques and factions and no one is able to point to a blemish on his record, according to his friends in this locality.

It is said that New York is to have a permanent minstrel theatre, which will be under the control of George Primrose, James McIntyre and Thos. Heath. When the regular company is on tour other minstrel companies like those to George Evans, Lew Dockstader and Al G. Field will fill engagements there.
