Doctors Use This for Eczema

Dr. Evans, Ex-Commissioner of Health, says: "There is almost no relation between skin diseases and the blood." The skin must be cured through the skin. The germs must be washed out, and so salves have long ago been found worthless. The most advanced physicians of this country are now agreed on this, and are prescribing a wash of wintergreen, thymol and other ingredients for eczema and all other skin diseases. This compound is known as D.D.D. Prescription for Eczema.

Dr. Holmes, the well known skin specialist writes: "I am convinced that the D.D.D. Prescription is as much a specific for eczema as quinine for malaria. We have been prescribing the D.D.D. remedy for years."

We ourselves vouch for the D.D.D.

Prescription for eczema and absolutely guarantee that it will take away the itch the instant you apply it.

If you are suffering from any form of skin trouble we would like to have you come to our store, for we have had the agency of this remedy for so many years that we can tell you all about D.D.D. Prescription and how it cures eczema. In fact, we are so sure of what D.D.D. will do for you that we will be glad to let you have a $1 bottle on our guarantee that it will cost you nothing unless you find that it does the work. For that matter a trial bottle for 25c ought to be enough to absolutely prove the merits of the remedy.

Drop into our store anyway and we will tell you all about this great remedy.

Mme. Antoinette Le Brun to Present Grand Opera "Martha"

La Grande Audience will hear grand opera company in one of two stellar musical attractions April 1st.

Mme. Antoinette Le Brun, touring the northwest under the supervision of the Redpath Lyceum bureau, will present, probably, the grand opera, "Martha," at the Steward, April 1. "Il Trovatore" and "Martha" are the classics which she handles and in "Martha," of course, Mme. Le Brun sings the role of Lady Harriet Dur-lam. The synopsis of "Martha" is apropos no doubt at this instance.

Lady Harriet, a lady of rank at the Court of Queen Anne of England, tired of the amusements which court-life affords, forms a plan to visit the Servant's Fair at Richmond in the disguise of a servant girl in search of employment. She is accompanied by Nancy, her maid, and others.

Hither, also repaired two young farmers, Lionel and Plunkett. Lionel is the adopted child of Plunkett's parents, both now deceased. His parentage is unknown. His father was found one evening at the door of the farmhouse, where he had sunk down from exhaustion. Lionel, then a small boy, was with him. Both were taken in and provided for, but the father soon died, leaving his son to the charity of Plunkett's parents. He left his son nothing but a ring, with the injunction to present it to the Queen if he ever be in distress. The two foster brothers came to the farm for the purpose of engaging help for their farm. Here they were struck with the personal appearance of Lady Harriet and her maid and offer to engage them. The Lady and Nancy, who relish the joke exceedingly, accept the offer and take the earnest money, unaware that thereby they are bound in law to serve them for the space of one year.

Arrived at the farm, the foster brothers soon find out that their new servants know absolutely nothing of their duties.

Martha and Nancy manage to escape from the farm and after a short time after this occurrence the Queen, with the ladies of her court—among them Lady Harriet and her maid—hunt to a forest adjoining the village of which Plunkett's farm formed a part. Accidentally Plunkett and Lionel fall in with a party of huntresses headed by Lady Harriet. They recognize their former servants; but the ladies deny all knowledge of them. Their cortege comes to their assistance, and the two farmers are about to be arrested when Lady Harriet, who at last was touched by Lionel's grief, causes them to go away unharmed, stigmatizing them as mad men, unworthy of serious notice. Lionel, driven almost frantic by the cruel calmness with which Martha pretends not to know him, bethinks himself that he has the ring left him by his father. He entrusts it to Plunkett, and as the queen is passing by, Plunkett immediately delivers it to her. By means of this ring it is found out that Lionel is the only son of the late Earl of Derby, who ended his days in disgrace, into which he had unjustly fallen. Queen Anne caused the title and all the possessions of the late earl to be restored to the son by an act of parliament.

The story ends by the marriage of Lady Harriet with Lionel, and Plunkett with Nancy.

PENINSULAR STEEL RANGES

Is Far and Beyond an argument.

The FINEST MADE. Here is what a SATISFIED CUSTOMER writes us:

"The day I first began using my new PENINSULAR STEEL RANGE was indeed a revelation to me. The possibilities of quick and even baking are unlimited. On baking day my bread is that same delicious, delicate brown on both the top and bottom. At the same time I cook my meals on the top and heat water 'piping hot' for washing the dishes in the large porcelain lined reservoir tank. And do you know, that when I have a boiled dinner that I cook it in the OVEN, because it carries the odors into the chimney and out of the house. Isn't that GRAND! When I am baking I never have to fire but once, as it will hold an even fire all day. I have framed my GUARANTEE BOND given with the range and hung it in the kitchen, but know that I will never find it necessary to have use for it."

MRS. HOUSEWIFE: LET US PUT THIS RANGE IN FOR YOU.
