A COLD, LA GRIPPE, THEN PNEUMONIA.

Is too often the fatal sequence, and coughs that hang on weaken the system and lower the vital resistance. Foley's Honey and Tar Compound is a reliable medicine that stops the cough promptly by healing the cause; soothes the inflamed air passages, and checks the cold. Keep always on hand. Refuse substitutes. For sale by A. T. Hill.

Society and Clubs

Ladies of the Neighborhood club will give a birthday dinner on the evening of Wednesday, March 6, at the I. O. O. F. banquet room serving along unique lines. The services begin at 5:30 o'clock. The hall will be decorated in the club colors—yellow and white—and appropriate music will be discoursed during the progress of the dinner hours. There will be 12 tables representing the 12 months of the year and each table will be decorated according to the month while a menu will be served accordingly and distinctly "in season." Each table will have a hostess and a committee to superintend the service. The following ladies of the club will have charge: Mrs. John Thelsen, general manager and chairman; Mrs. E. D. Selders, January; Mrs. De Lile Green, February; Mrs. E. Polack, March; Mrs. Ray Logan, April; Mrs. Lockwood, May; Mrs. Frank Jackson, June; Mrs. F. Baker, July; Mrs. J. T. Richardson, August; Mrs. J. K. Wright, September; Mrs. M. B. Donohue, October; Mrs. Fred Schilke, November; Mrs. E. E. Bragg, December. Each of the above ladies have tickets now for sale at 50 cents a ticket.

On Feb. 19, 1912, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Peck, occurred one of the prettiest home weddings that have been seen in La Grande for some time, when Miss Bessie, daughter of Hon. Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Peck of La Grande, and Mr. Ernest H. Guley of New Westminster, B. C., were solemnized in marriage by the Rev. E. P. Borden.

of the Baptist church of La Grande. The pretty bride wore a dress of nuns veiling over a foundation of pink silk. Only the immediate friends of the family were present. After the ceremony a wedding supper was served which was enjoyed by all those present. The evening was spent in receiving their friends, after which they took No. 5 to New Westminster, B. C.

A host of good wishes follow the young couple. The young bride will be missed by her many friends as she was a popular La Grande girl.

Details of the Eastern Star's preparation at Baker for the coming grand lodge at Portland, are contained in the following from the Baker Herald telling of the drill team's prospects there:

The regular meeting of the Eastern Star last night at their lodge room was important to this lodge in that it formally accepted the invitation of the grand chapter of the state to put on the drill work of the order at Portland next spring, when all the lodges of the state convene.

The local team has recently been augmented by a number of new members, all of whom are determined to put on the work in prize winning style. Towards this end the lodge made arrangements to get Mrs. Fred Schilke of La Grande to take charge of the training. Mrs. Schilke is expected in Baker soon to begin her duties. She was the leader and trainer of the La Grande team last year which put on the degree work of the order at Portland and is thoroughly versed in it. Besides Mrs. Schilke, the team will be under the supervision of Mrs. R. T. Langrell, Worthy Matron and George Henry, Worthy Patron.

The meeting was also enlivened by the work of initiation, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Jones being the new members taken in. The lodge is planning on taking in several new members two weeks from last night.

For March 5, next Saturday, the Neighborhood club will hear the following program: "The Temple," Mrs. Oliver; "Goldsmith's Deserted Vil-
