Almost Too Much.

Along the long, lone country road tramped a man and his wife. The latter, a tall, gaunt female, was bullying the meek little partner of her sorrows who trudged just ahead of her with reluctant steps. Suddenly the woman, turning, saw a bull racing madly down the road behind them. She quickly sought refuge in the hedge, but her companion, conscious only of his woes, went meekly forward. The bull caught him up and sent him spinning into a muddy ditch before it raced forward on its mad way.

As the funny looking object crawled from his watery resting place he saw his gaunt wife coming toward him. At the sight of her what temper he had in his possession rose.

"See, Maria, if—if you hit me again like that, you'll make me—er—down-right mad, so I warn you!"—Exchange.

Early Rapid Transit.

Cardinal Wolsey did not live in an age of rapid transit, but he created it for himself. His capacity for rapid travel was a valuable aid in carving out a career. Wolsey is said to have first won royal favor in this way. He was charged with a message from Henry VII. to the Emperor Maximilian in the Low Countries and left London in the afternoon. He went by boat to Gravesend, by horse to Dover, then by boat again to Calais, and he was with the emperor the following evening and back to the king in just over two days from the time of starting.

Two candidates were initiated in a very impressive manner by the local degree staff, after which all were invited to the banquet room where covers were laid for 100. The tables were decorated in lodge colors and trailing vines. The guests from Elgin included: Nellie H. Crum, Maggie Heland, Cynthia Davis, Janie H. Yentzer, Nellie Willson, Vergie Hartley, Lillian Page, Lou Dawson, Alice Hug, Ardie Lyman, Corda Lyman, Mrs. J. F. Bater, Mrs. L. Parks, A. E. Hug, C. E. Dudley, Mrs. S. L. Burnaugh, Lella Shoemaker, C. A. Ray, all of Violet Rebekah Lodge No. 123 of Elgin, Oregon. Other out of town visitors were present to enjoy the hospitality of the La Grande Rebekahs.

The local lodge of I. O. O. F. are still talking about the big banquet they were given on February 24th by the ladies of Island City when they attended the meeting of the Chosen Friends Lodge No. 190 of Island City. In spite of heavy roads 20 of the local Odd Fellows attended the meeting and a rousing good time was enjoyed. After the business of the evening was completed the hosts and their guests went to Goodnough hall where the ladies had prepared a sumptuous banquet and which was served. After the banquet apropos speeches were made and the ladies declared to be capital provenders.

On Friday evening Miss Grace Pickens gave a chaffing dish luncheon to the Omaes at her home. The good time always had by the Omaes was enjoyed. Those present were Inez Knowles, Alice Hill, Helen Currey and Serena Rohan.

The Home Missionary society of the Methodist church met this week with Mrs. F. H. Green. A large attendance was present and delicious refreshments were served the members and the guests. Business matters were also taken up.
