Information and guides, compiled in a booklet replete with scenic features, have been issued by the Portland Elks to lead the way to Portland in July. The booklet is pretty gotten up and sets forth much sought-for information.

F. C. Heidenrich the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Heidenrich of this city, has been united in marriage to Miss Plume Cortner of Scottsburg, Ind. Both are graduates of Valparaiso (Ind.) university and the young couple plan to make their future home in Chicago. Mr. Heidenrich is quite well known in La Grande and was a guest here with relatives and friends a few years ago.

Tomorrow evening is the date for the Neighborhood club dinner whereat men and women are equally welcome. Each guest will sit at a table representing the month in which the guest was born.

The Ladies' Parish Society of Zion's Lutheran Church will meet next Thursday at the home of Mrs. E. B. Hansen 194 Adams Ave.

The Valley creamery pays its patrons for butterfat within 1c of its highest wholesale selling price for butter, and while other local creameries are under-selling them in order to get a temporary advantage with the retail dealers, the Valley is striving to encourage the dairymen and to help build up the dairy industry by paying the highest possible price for cream. The Grande Ronde and tributary valley is the very best dairy section in the west and if the farmers had been given proper encouragement in the past the business would be twenty-fold greater than it is today. Prosperous farmers mean prosperous merchants, prosperous creamery men and a growing prosperous city. It is a poor policy that would cry down the products of what promises to be the leading industry and thus cut off the very source of prosperity. The Valley Creamery is paying 34 cents for butterfat—one cent more than any other creamery is getting for their butter in La Grande now. Valley Creamery. 3-5-11 wkly it
