COVE ITEMS OF INTEREST

Cove, March 6—(Special)—The leap year dance given at Mitchell hall last Friday night was well attended.

Grandma Bloom is quite ill and under the care of a physician.

Mrs. Clyde Robinson and baby who have been visiting at Walla Walla for some time have returned home.

Miss Hilda Johnson, a nurse from a hospital at Walla Walla, is visiting at the Bell home.

R. Morris, who owns a large ranch at Lower Cove was in town one day last week. He reports the roads the worst at any time he can remember.

Alec Stackland from Portland who was called home on account of the sickness and death of his mother, will visit with relatives for a few days before he returns to his business at the metropolis.

Harvey Dahlstrom has returned to the hospital at Ogden, Utah, for further treatment.

George Lere, comedian and dancer, contributed in no small way to make the last Friday and Saturday nights shows successes.

On investigation we are satisfied that all parties concerned are doing their duty and using reasonable precautions to prevent further spread of the scarlet fever. If it spreads it will be from mild cases not reported and not quarantined, which we believe was the way it spread to start with. The physician in attendance on the cases wears an antiseptic suit when visiting these cases and on leaving the

NOTICE TO BIDDERS.

Bidders Must Submit Proposals for the Entire Work.

Each proposal must be accompanied by a certified check amounting to 5 per cent of the total bid, payable to the order of the Grande Ronde Valley Irrigation company, as a guarantee that the bidder will, if successful, promptly execute a satisfactory contract and furnish bond for the faithful performance of the work as required by paragraph five of the specifications. Each proposal must also be accompanied by a guarantee of responsible sureties to furnish bonds as required if the proposal is accepted. The proposal must be marked "Proposal for Construction of Main Canal, Grande Ronde Valley Irrigation Project," and addressed "Grande Ronde Valley Irrigation Company, La Grande Oregon." The name of the bidder should be written on the envelope including proposal.

The center line of the canal on the proposed route is now staked. The right to change location is reserved by the company (see article 23 of specifications.) Bidders are particularly cautioned to investigate local conditions which may affect the bid price. (See article II of specifications.)

For particulars address the secretary Grande Ronde Valley Irrigation Company, La Grande, Oregon.

Signed,

J. D. McKENNON, President.

By C. T. DARLEY, Engineer.

DANGER IN DELAY.

Kidney Diseases Are Too Dangerous for La Grande People to Neglect.

The great danger of kidney troubles is that they get firm hold before the sufferer recognizes them. Health is gradually undermined. Backache, headache, nervousness, lameness, soreness, lumbago, urinary troubles, dropsy, gravel and Bright's disease, follow in meretricious succession. Don't neglect your kidney. Help the kidneys with the reliable and safe remedy, Doan's Kidney Pills, which has cured people right here in this locality.
