AN INDIAN ROMEO.

Isis Film Pictures Thrilling Story of Indianship.

An Indian Romeo and Juliet is the feature at the Isis for Friday and Saturday. A very good picture in Mohawk valley backgrounds, featuring Florence Turner as an Indian maid, who is loved by a Huron Romeo, but whose father, the Mohawk chief, has set her apart for a rich Mohawk warrior. The Indian Romeo and Juliet meet and are married by stealth and, on the eve of the marriage with the Mohawk which she cannot escape, she gets from the medicine man a potion that makes her seem dead. The ending scene is exactly almost like the old ending but in Indian setting.

AN APOLOGY.

Editor Observer:—We wish to apologize to your readers for any responsibility that we may have had in the torture inflicted on them by the scribbles of the other local creamery in yesterday's Observer. We take this step to save the public further calamity, as the B. M. writer intimates that he is troubled with more of the same kind of "bile". We are pleased to learn that our locating here has increased the prosperity of the other plant and trust that the stockholders and gentlemanly (?) officials of the company will soon be able to retire and enjoy the fruits of their labor. We are hurt, however, by their lack of appreciation and are shocked and grieved by their "big squeal."

Yours very humbly,
J. EMIGH, Mgr Valley Creamery.

Permit Us to Call Your Attention to Our New Method of Ironing

We have recently discarded the old method of mangling, and installed the Asher System of flat work ironing at an expense of nearly three thousand dollars.

By the use of this machine fine bed, table and other linen is ironed WITHOUT FRICTION and consequently WITHOUT WEAR. There are no string marks on the reverse side, a defect so noticeable as well as highly injurious which is prevalent in other methods.

The fabrics are virtually PRESSED, not CRUSHED, and the superiority of this form of ironing is so plain that many of our patrons noticed the improvement at once.

If you have not done so please observe the ironing now being done by us on your napkins, table cloth, counterpanes and other flat work. We think that it will not only cause you to feel a greater satisfaction in our work, but that it will also induce you to recommend it to your friends.

We have always been the first to apply "New Methods" to our business and in securing the Asher Ironer we feel that we have made a big forward stride. You are cordially invited to call any afternoon and see this machine in operation.

Yours Sincerely,
Cherry's New Laundry

Dated at La Grande, this 28th day of February, 1912.
