FINAL GAME THIS EVENING

SPIRITED GAME CERTAIN WHEN RIVALS CLASH

Last Game of the Season to be Between Local Quintets

Tonight at 7:45 the LaGrande high school and city basketball teams meet for the last game of the year when they face each other in the high school gymnasium to settle the supremacy of the city and further clear up or muddle the affairs of Eastern Oregon championship, as the case may be. This annual setto is always spirited and filled with heated rooting for both teams have ardent followers who will be present to urge the teams into the fastest kind of ball possible.

The ticklish job of refereeing a hometeam game will fall on the shoulders of "Nig" Huber, and the men he will govern will probably be:

High	City
Bohnenkamp	Center	Bean
Bolton	forward	Lindsey
Roberts	forward	Hollister
Ralston	guard	Geddes, or
		Bean
Lottes	guard	Woods

Utilities for high school: Reynolds, Schofield. For city team: Watson.

troupe who are to be seen tonight at the Steward, are in the city today. They have been greeted with big houses all along the O. S. L. and O.W. but invariably came away with plenty of praises from the audiences.

Marriage License. The county clerk, yesterday afternoon, issued a marriage license to James F. Burns and O. Anderson.
