London Street beggars.

Spending of the swarms of beggars and "panhandlers" in the English metropolis, the London Times says: "The streets of London never fail to attract the professional beggar and never disappoint him. The Mendicant society tells us that a beggar can earn more than the wages of the average workingman and that it is probably no exaggeration to say that well over $500,000 is given away haphazard to beggars in the streets of London every year."
