RUNNING AMOK.

A Mania For Murder That is Peculiar to Oriental Countries.

The expression "run amok" is the Anglized form of a term used in some parts of the orient to describe a form of homicidal mania, accompanied by a frenzied plunge in any and every direction. In the countries where the mania originated the word applied to it was "amok." The corrupted form of it is now applied in a score of ways without any warrant.

In Malacca, Siam, Java and adjacent regions the mental state which causes amok is well defined and much dreaded. It is attributed almost invariably to excessive drinking of stimulants. The victim first turns morose, generally remaining in this state for several days. Then he is suddenly seized with the mania for slaughter and starts on his mad run with the first weapon he can reach.

Extra precautions against these mad ravages are taken in some of the more civilized places, especially Batavia. There the police are armed with what is called a catch fork. The instant the victim of amok starts on his mad dash he finds himself hooked by a minion of the law and held firmly the length of this odd human spear. He can harm himself, but that is the limit of his insane power.—Exchange.

MARY CHILDERS PASSES AWAY

MARY CHILDERS etaoinODR

AFTER LONG ILLNESS, DEATH ENDS SUFFERING.

Well Known Woman's Demise Occurs at Harrisburg, Oregon.

Mary E. Childers, formerly resident of Union county, died in Harrisburg, Oregon, Monday evening, March 11. She has been ailing for several weeks and her daughter, Mrs. Irwin of Island City, was called to the bedside some time ago.

Mrs. Childers was 59 years, 2 months and 21 days old at the time of her death. The funeral services will be conducted by Rev. C. O. Heath at the M. E. church at Harrisburg at 2 o'clock p. m. March 17.

THE AMERICAN DISEASE.

Indigestion, Chronic and Acute, and the Digestive Organs.

Indigestion, a phase of dyspepsia which has been called the American disease, is very common, and its disagreeable symptoms are but too well known. Chronic indigestion, or dyspepsia, is very prevalent, and in medical phrase an acute disease is opposed to chronic in the sense that while a chronic disease runs a long time the acute form is attended with severe symptoms and is likely to come speedily to a crisis.

Acute indigestion, therefore, is a condition in which the digestive organs, because they are either naturally weak or are worn out, overworked or temporarily abused, fail to perform their functions and the whole system is thrown "out of gear." This may be due primarily and directly to overeating or to eating improper food, to gorging the stomach with inadequately masticated food, to retarding its normal action with too much liquid or to other local influences.

In cases of acute indigestion or dyspepsia there generally is intense pain, often followed by sickness and vomiting of the surplus or offensive matter by which the stomach seeks to correct the effects of abuse and regain a normal condition. But it does not always succeed. Other measures of relief also fail, the machinery breaks down, and death ensues.

The main difference between chronic dyspepsia and acute indigestion is that one is slow death and the other quick. The moral as to dietetic habits, eating and drinking, is too obvious to need pointing out.—Indianapolis News.

Aerial Flights.

The United States army is going to have twenty new aeroplanes and later, probably, several vacancies.—Detroit News.

The Wright brothers have succeeded in making the aeroplane fool proof. Well, what do the aviators take up now?

Washington Post.

A regiment of aviators numbering 827 has been organized for the French army. That's another flying record for 1912.—New York World.

British Briefs.

Great Britain owns 12,000 steamers and sailing vessels.

In Great Britain and Ireland there are over 40,000 public houses.

It is estimated that the proposed domestic servants tax, which has aroused such lively opposition in England, will affect 800,000 families employing servants.

Automobile Runs.

It is said that automobilism leads to corpulence, but not among pedestrians.—Boston Herald.

"Thought it was a stone we hit" promises to be as popular an excuse with the searching automobilist as "Didn't know it was loaded" is with the fool with a gun.—New York Tribune.

Salad Suggestions.

Green pepper, pimiento, olives and cabbages, all shredded and dressed with mayonnaise, make a delicious salad.

A few cans of asparagus tips in the grocery closet insure a delicious salad at all times when other products prove low and as emergency arises.

By adding the leftovers of kidney beans, peas or cold potatoes to flaked salmon and mixing all with a good dressing an excellent salad may be made.
