Society..Clubs

Wednesday night closed the last act in connection with "The Isle of Mystery," when the Moose lodge gave an elaborate banquet in the Foley grill, in honor of the officers, committees and those who took part in the beautiful operatic production. At 8, about 50 guests were seated at the tables, conveniently arranged, and after serving a specially prepared seven-course dinner, Toastmaster "Pat" Foley, stated the objects of the banquet, and in his eloquent, but humble attitude proceeded to exercise the scope of his authority as toastmaster and handed and handsome "packages" to a few of out a few very beautifully decorated the good natured members of the order, as well as the guests who took part in the play.

tator Green, together with Messrs.
Darland, Scranton, McLeod, Halsted, Leavitt, Davis, Ferrin and several others responded to toasts. The only thing Waldo Geddes could talk about was the fine quality of "cabbage heads" always in stock at the Geddes grocery, and Charles Harding at various intervals during the banquet, being overcome with the spirit of the occasion—would sing along with the most sympathetic and soul inspiring tones, "Put Me Among the Girls."

The occasion was one which will be long remembered, and will always have a prominent place in the history of the order. Everything during the entire program, from beginning to end was of a pleasing and entertaining nature, and Toastmaster Foley, exposing that unselfish and "let the good things go round" disposition, called upon the ladies present, and it was at this point was never more pronounced.

Messrs. Sandberg and Battle left for Baker the following morning highly pleased with the results of the opera, and paid the highest compliments to those who took part in the play, as well as the committees having the work in charge. They also praised in the highest terms, the personnel of the official staff of the order, and its active membership.

One of the most novel events of this social season, was given by the Wilem club on Thursday evening in the form of a progressive dinner. The first course of the dinner was served at the home of Miss Mae White the second at Miss Etta Foley's home, the third at Miss Marjorie McCall's home, the fourth at the home of Miss Mildred Cook. After this course the company returned to the McCall home, where, after the fifth and last course, they spent the remainder of the evening in an informal way. The guests of the club were Mr. Whitman, Mr. "Penny" Given, Norman Desilet, Leo Herring, Walter Francis while the hostesses were Miss White, Miss McCall, Miss Cook, Miss Foley and Miss Lena Jones.

Mrs. A. T. Hill, chairman of the directors of the Neighborhood club called the officers and directors together on Monday. They voted to join the general federation of Women's clubs, the club being only federated with the state of Oregon. By joining the national federation the delegates, Mrs.

Schlike, is given every privilege of the convention. At the club meeting on Tuesday several different things were discussed and passed upon. The committee appointed to revise the by-laws were Mrs. J. K. Wright, Mrs. A. Hunter and Mrs. Jackson. A standing committee was appointed to be ready to assist in the Y. M. C. A. movement at any time their assistance being requested—Committee: Mrs. Pickens, Mrs. J. S. Richardson and Mrs. John Theisen. The club voted to take up American literature and art for the coming year as their literary work.
Committee on program: Mrs. J. W.
Loughlin, Mrs. George Palmer and Mrs. J. T. Williamson. The next meeting of the club will be at the home of Mrs. Holmes. This is the annual social day and Mrs. Holmes, as hostess and chairman of the committee, requests all members to be present, also each member is requested to invite a guest. The ladies were entertained at the Tuesday session with the following program:

Crimean Monument — Mrs. M. E.
Donohue.
Albert Memorial—Mrs. F. M. Jackson Eleanor's Cross—Mrs. Thomson.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Pattison celebrated their fifth wedding anniversary Monday evening at their home, 1304 Pennsylvania avenue. Miss Virginia Lincoln received the guest at the door and presented each with a souvenir of shamrock. The evening was spent in playing pinochle. Mrs. Grand Lincoln won first prize.

At 11:30 the guests were ushered into the dining room to partake of a delicious supper. The table was decorated in blue china and wooden to represent the wooden anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. Pattison received many beautiful gifts. The guests returned to their homes at a late hour wishing Mr. and Mrs. Pattison many more happy anniversaries. The invited guests were:

Mr. and Mrs. Safford, Mr. and Mrs.
Grant Lincoln, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Roach, Mr. Fred Pattison, Mrs. John Thomas-sone, Mr. Will Pattison, Mr. Herman Roach and Miss Louisa Roach and Virginia Lincoln.

With the coming of Madame Le Brun on April 1st but a few days away, musical circles are arranging their affairs to let nothing interfere with the

IN WAYS THAT COUNT

WHEN you buy your Clothing here, you get clothes that are not only right in the big ways, but you get clothes that are right in the small ways---the little details that mean so much when the real test of hard wear brings out the weak spots.

So much can be omitted from a suit without showing on the surface, that it is almost impossible for the average man to detect these faults.

Here is where our clothes excel.

We buy only from the best manufacturers, whose methods we know, whose reputation is unquestioned,

We sell you our clothes only with the distinct understanding that if they are unsatisfactory you will bring them back to us.

attendance at the grand opera productions. Selections will be rendered from "Martha" and "Il Trovatore," two well known grand operas, and the supporting company of stars to Madame Le Brun is such as to brand the production the very best musical treat in years. The company came from the eastern musical centers and is stopping at only a few of the western points—La Grande being one of them.
The Steward management is proud of its undertaking and that the audience will cram the building seems certain.

Monday afternoon of this week Miss Elma Bay and Miss Margaret Zweifel entertained at the home of the former in honor of their birthday anniversaries. A number of the "younger" people of the town were guests of the young ladies who entertained them at games and other amusements during the afternoon. A luncheon such as delight the childish heart, was served at the close of the delightful afternoon.
Those present were:

Retta Horlan, Wilma Wade, Freda Zweifel, Cora Baker, Margaret Baker, Lois Nelson, Dewey Crawford, Vie Crawford, Dallas Jacobson, Paul Bull, Philip Walnum, George Baker, Laurence Bay, Irving Zundell, Elma Bay and Margaret Zweifel.

Mrs. W. H. Bohnenkamp, Mrs. P. S.
Robinson and Mrs. Charles Cochran, will be hostesses to a Fraulein luncheon at the parlors of the Masonic hall Monday afternoon, March 25th at 2 o'clock. The form of entertainment for the afternoon will be a sewing party, interspersed with an excellent musical program. This club has been recently organized exclusively from members of the Order of Eastern Star and will hold social sessions on the second and fourth Fridays of each month at 2 o'clock.

Thursday of this week Mr. and Mrs.
Dan Hausbrock celebrated Mrs. Has-brock's birthday anniversary with a dinner whereat several relatives were present. The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Henderson Clark, grandparents of the hostess, the hostess' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sprat Montgomery, two brothers, Charles and Cleveland Montgomery Guy Martin, George Clark, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Orvis and Jean Orvis. Cleveland Montgomery's anniversary occurred the previous day so the event was doubly important and consequently two-fold enjoyable.

The newly organized Pinochle club met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Day on Adams avenue Tuesday evening. Lot Snodgrass won the favor.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Dittebrandt entertain the club next week.

Miss Mildred Cook entertained the Milem club Wednesday evening.

The New Idea club met with Mrs.
Earl Zundell on Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. H. M. Bay entertained the Billiken club and a few invited guests at her home this week.
