ELK HERE TO HEAD CRUSADE

FINLEY DEEMS PENDING MOVEMENT FINE.

La Grande Lodge of Elk to Initiate a Novel Move Tomorrow.

Pendleton, Ore., March 27.—(Special)—What is considered by State Game Warden Finley to be the most important move ever made for the protection of game in Oregon will be made by the La Grande lodge of Elks tomorrow evening. It will be the adoption of a resolution calling upon the other Elks lodges of the state to contribute toward a fund to be used in assisting the state game department in securing convictions against those who kill elk in this state, contrary to law.

There are 14 lodges in the state and included in the resolution will be a motion that the La Grande lodge appropriate its $600 or $700 necessary to raise a fund of $5,000 or $6,000.

It was the original intention of the La Grande elks to have this fund used up by offering rewards of $500 each for information leading to the arrest and conviction of anyone killing an elk in this state. At the suggestion of State Game Warden Finley, however, the fund, if raised, will probably be made permanent and only the interest used in the rewards. Though this will not give a very large sum at first, Mr. Finley has offered to supplement it from the state game fund so that a reward of $250 could be offered at first and later funds sufficient for the full $500 reward for each case will be available.

According to the state game warden the chief importance of this move lies not in the fact that a large reward is to be offered but in that several thousand prominent citizens throughout the state are directly contributing to the fund for the protection of elk and will therefore have a personal interest in the several small bands yet remaining in different parts of Oregon. Mr. Finley says this co-operation will result in the arousing of a public sentiment which will make possible full and complete protection of this, the noblest of all game animals. He also believes the good effects will not be confined to elk alone but will be extended to game protection in general.

This is the second important move made by the La Grande lodge along the same line and both are directly due to the importation of the famous "Oregon herd" of elk from Jackson Hole, Wyoming, to Wallawa county, Oregon. The first was the sending out of personal letters to each of the lodge's 500 members in Union and in Wallawa counties, calling upon them to co-operate to the fullest extent with the state game warden and his deputies in their efforts to prevent the annihilation of Oregon's game.

It is believed by those most interested in the matter that the bringing of this herd of elk to Oregon by the joint efforts of the state game department and the Elks lodges has resulted in the awakening of a greater sentiment in favor of game protection throughout Oregon than has heretofore existed.
