JOHNS QUITS BAKER.

Well Known Attorney Will Accept Portland Offer.

Mr. C. A. Johns for the last 24 years a resident of this city has made final arrangements to accept a position with the Oregon-Washington General Electric company as their chief counsel, says the Baker Herald. Mr. Johns has been practicing law since 1888 during which time he has forged to the front as an attorney of this section of the state. Throughout all his residence here he has been a public spirited citizen, having at different times filled many public offices.

Mr. C. M. Johns, his son, who recently returned here, will be employed as assistant to his father in his new position. It will probably be some time before they move to their new home in Portland.

now until next fall to working in this way in behalf of suffrage.

Mrs. Wade served for five years as president of the women's clubs of Oregon and is therefore in very close touch with the work of those organizations. She was an active worker in the recent equal suffrage campaign in Los Angeles and in the Los Angeles city election. She is quite familiar with the methods followed in California and feels that similar methods will prove effective in Oregon.

It is the hope of Mrs. Wade that the local club women will become interested in the suffrage campaign and that a club may be formed for the purpose of enlisting the women in the move and creating sentiment in favor of suffrage. Plans for the organization have not yet been perfected as Mrs. Wade first wishes to consult with the local ladies in regard to a method of procedure. However, she has been given much encouragement and is optimistic over the outlook.

Mrs. Wade is working under the National Women's Club association which is a separate organization from the one under which Mrs. Ehrhott, who lectures here tonight, is serving. However, the two organizations have a common end and work in harmony for obtaining "Votes for Women."

At the city hall this evening Mrs. Sarah Bard Field Ehrhott, official lecturer and organizer for the Oregon Equal Suffrage league, will deliver an address upon the subject of equal suffrage and it will constitute the first local meeting held to advance the suffrage cause in the election to be held this fall, says the Pendleton East Oregonian for Thursday.

Mrs. Ehrhott comes here from the west end of the county where she has been working in Hermiston, Stanfield and Echo. She was to be accompanied by Mrs. Sarah Commerford but owing to illness on the part of the latter she will not be in attendance at the meeting here this evening.

It was also the intention of Mrs. Ehrhott to attempt the organization of a local branch of the equal suffrage league. It is possible, however, that this move will be deferred for a time owing to the fact that efforts are underway to enlist the present local club organization in the fight.

Mrs. C. B. Wade, who is here for the purpose of meeting with the club women with a view to forming an organization to carry on the suffrage campaign in Eastern Oregon, will be at the city hall meeting tonight and it is understood will tell of the methods

SUFFRAGETTES INVADE OREGON

HEADQUARTERS ESTABLISHED AT PENDLETON.

Efforts to Turn Oregon to Women Vote Column Commenced.

Pendleton, March 28.—With a view to establishing Eastern Oregon headquarters in Pendleton and organizing the club women of this section of the state in behalf of the equal suffrage movement, Mrs. C. B. Wade, formerly of Pendleton, and now a resident of Los Angeles, arrived here yesterday and is already busy with her work. At present Mrs. Wade is the guest of Mrs. Thomas Thompson at the latter's home on Water street. Later on an office may be opened here for the purpose of serving as headquarters for carrying on the campaign in Eastern Oregon. In either event Mrs. Wade expects to be here most of the time and to devote her efforts from
