PHOTOPLAYS, INSTRUCTIVE, ENTERTAINING, AND AMUSING

"PHANTOM LOVERS"

American Pathé
A very pleasing drama that is both well acted and well photographed.

"LOVE AND TEARS"

Lubin
A young married man likes society. His wife who is sick asks him to stay home with her. He says, "I'll be back at 12." It has an emotional ending.

"When the Evening Breeze Is Sighing Home, Sweet Home."

"THE HOBBO'S REDEMPTION"

Vitagraph
Thrilling and dramatic story of life in a coal mining region. A cave-in down deep in the recesses of a mine prove the real worth and character of manhood.

"THE LEMON"

Essanay
A clever comedy picture of theatrical life.

YOU ARE ALWAYS WELCOME

mon method of representing the Jew before audiences. Scarcely ever is he shown as an honest man, a benevolent man, or a gentleman; but, as so opprobrious as to make the name Shylock, an equivalent of Hebrew.

Many of the best men the world ever saw were Hebrews, in ancient or in modern times. Speaking more of today, who can forget the unselfishness of Sir Moses Montefiore who spent millions to secure better homes for all kinds and classes of the race? To be sure, there have been rascals in every blood, but who has the temerity to stand up and say the greatest proportion has been among the descendants of Abraham?

Beef Trust in Chicago? You must be dreaming. What, but yourself, ever heard of such a thing? Chicago has enough sorrow without clamping such a charge to her puritanical record. Call off the hounds.

"None but Americans need apply" is the slogan at the Gray's Harbor sawmills. That is done to save difficulties arising from the employment of the undesirable foreigner who is at the base of almost all the strikes throughout the country. The foreigner competing for business was the cause of the late Lawrence Imbrogio.

"Americans for America," or for those who make their honest and legal declaration to become Americans is a good motto. According to some penny-wise and soap-box orators America would be a non-descript so far as individuality is concerned. Properly assimilated amalgamation is good, but raw hash in which the ingredients stand as non-assimilative is too raw.

The next sensible step for the friends of Senators Lorimer and Stephenson to take is one to collect damages for blackmail, we suppose. A jury of "their peers" has declared them innocent. It is one thing to know a senator, or other higher-up guilty, and another thing to prove it.

Mr. R. McCrae says this is the way they are handing it to him and his hotel: "They have a hotel at Rondowa But not like the one in Wallowa; For Mr. McCrae Feeds the travelers hay And they hawl like a cow-a In Wallowa."

Gentle spring comes on a-pacing, but her pace is rather slow. The weather continues much like a creche, pretty squally. Nevertheless, the wheat fields look fine, the great gas-pumps operated by horse and by gasoline engines are turning up the tempting sod and the farmer is showing his faith by his works.

La Grande will soon be a city of actual sky-scrapers without the remotest doubt. The two already projected will only breed others and taller and enlarged business blocks will follow in order.

La Grande is already the convention center for Eastern Oregon, as witnessed by the hundreds of strangers on our streets this evening; they are here to remain for three days longer, and we all, irrespective of "race, color or previous condition of servitude," will boost with them and for them and for the purpose that brought them here.

HOME MISSIONS

(Appros to the coming of the Men and Religion Forward movement in this city.)

To be truly patriotic is to be religious also. Some will not say sufficiently religious, but to a degree at least. The whole of the business of religion is to be and to stand for all that is best; the general aim the particular welfare of the individual, the community and the state.

The work of missions is most patriotic and appeals to all who love and prize best citizenship, for the highest grade of private morality is necessary in the production of the best public society.

WORLD GLIMPSE.

What numskull was it said China is not progressive and that the women over there are behind the times? Look at this. A woman, Yik Lug Ying, has been elected a member of the Chinese parliament from Canton. Women taxpayers are eligible to hold office. Maybe America can go to school to China yet.

If the Italians cannot overcome the breastworks and the barricades of their enemy, the Turk, they will get them anyway, for they are coming over their camps with dirigibles and dropping dynamite bombs into them. There seems but one way in which to head off man and that is to take his head off.

Orozco, the Mexican rebel leader, is on the trail of the thinks-he-is president of that unrepudiable republic whose sandy edge grates on our Rio Grande border. We'll venture that if his heart could be read we would discover that Mr. Madero wishes Diaz would come back home and take the reins of government again—or, that he could relinquish to some one.

As this paper has said previously, it looks as if the affairs in Mexico are not to be corrected and peace restored till some stronger power intervenes. It may have to be the United States at the insistence of other nations.

It is pleasant to note the success with which the Jews are meeting in their desire to secure from theatrical companies the cessation of the com-ary in the production of the best public society.

The interior of every community has frontiers that are in need of attention. Congestion often induces indigestion, and congested centers find persons who produce conditions disagreeable, feid, unnatural. These need attention. This home work needs home attention: to notice them means an application of home missionary effort.

There are new places needing the attention and sympathetic neighborliness of strong minds and lives; there are found on the frontier fringe of pioneering settlements in our state, territories, and insular possessions. To help them is home missionary work. It helps to hasten the day when law and order become steady fixtures, life made more secure, taxes for criminal prosecutions reduced to a minimum, and the best interests of society made ideal.

Annually there come to our shores about one million people, most of whom remain to propagate their kind —and they multiply rapidly. If they are to remain, they should become so soon as possible, thoroughly imbued with the spirit and life of the true American; the newcomer knows all too little of the customs, manners, morals and the religious rights of his new home. Too often his religion consists mainly of millions of rites.

To assist these millions of new arrivals to become the highest type (or an endurable type) of citizen is part of the work of home missions. The best citizen will be a moral and a religious man—not a mere moralist and religious professor.

A strong arm of this Men and Religion Forward movement holding its meetings now and for the next three days is this systematic, soulful, patriotic endeavor to assist making political, moral and religious matters better wherever the flag of Uncle Sam floats.

Practical Point of View.

The man watched his wife as she entered the voting booth. "Do you like to see a woman mingling with a lot of men at a polling place?" inquired a bystander. "It depends a great deal on the way she votes," said the husband, who was a practical man.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

"STICK TO 'ER, KID—DON'T LET HER THROW YOU."

The Doctor—How is the patient this morning? The Patient's Wife—I think he's better, but he seems to be worrying about something. The Physician—Hum! Yes. Just tell him I won't send it for a month. That ought to freshen him up some.—Chicago News.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed, you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; none comes out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

You will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness caused by Catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.
