Mrs. Dr. Tippi's of Bear Lake, Idaho, anniversary and the evening was exceptionally delightful. Refreshments and informal conversation made up the program at which these were present to meet Mrs. Tippi's. Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Bramwell, Mr. and Mrs. George Stoddard, Mr. and Mrs. A.

S. Geddes, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nibley, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Bramwell, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Ferrin, Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Davis, Mrs. Adam Paul, Mrs. Jess Paul, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Zundell. Another event arranged last week for the Idahoan was when Mrs. C. P. Ferrin entertain at an afternoon luncheon to Mrs. Tippi's. The luncheon consisted of a three-course service, and the following were guests: Mrs. Tippi's, Mrs. Rosenbaum, Mrs. A. S. Geddes, Mrs. Charles Nibley, Mrs. F. S. Bramwell, Mrs. George Stoddard, Mrs. Barbeau, Mrs. Frank C. Bramwell, Mrs. C. T. Darley. Others who entertained for Mrs. Tippi's during her stay were Mrs. A. S. Geddes, Mrs. George Stoddard, Mrs. C. J. Black, Mrs. Earl Zundell, Mrs. Adam Paul and Mrs. Lee Wright. While here Mrs. Tippi's met many old friends but the one which surprised her the most was the accidental meeting of a life-time friend, Cynthia Best Hendricks, with whom Mrs. Tippi's has been intimately acquainted since childhood but had not seen her in 50 years. They met here unexpectedly and the visit that followed was indeed an enjoyable one.

With but two days intervening between the present and the coming of Mrs. Le Brun and her grand opera company to the Steward opera house, society-music life in La Grande is much agog over the Monday night renditions of selections from "Martha" and "Il Trovatore" at the Steward opera house. With Holy Week before the social life of the city, it is probable that this musical attraction will be the sole and chief function next week and society will be found at the attraction. Over $5,000 have been spent to fittingly equip the Le Brun grand opera company with its costumes. Elaborate apparel will be seen Monday night and both grand operas from which the selections will be given are based on the most expensive sort of gowns and wearing apparel.

When the ticket sale opened this morning, the demand for tickets was brisk and there seems no question but what the board will be cleaned off long before the arrival of the company. Musical circles agree that nothing has been brought to La Grande with better reputation or with a higher standard of music to render, and the unusually low prices charged for seats should allow every person with a leaning towards good music, to be present to his purse's effect.

Last evening at Island City the election class of Miss N. Lucile Allen, gave one of the most pleasing entertainment heard at the suburb this season. The young ladies were taken from this city in cars and enjoyed the moonlight drive to the fullest extent. Several other cars from La Grande loaded with young people were in attendance. After the recital an informal reception was tendered by the Alert Bible class, at the home of Mrs. Ed. Kiddle. At a late hour the parties took their departure for La Grande. The following program was excellently rendered by the participants:

The Jolly Girl Bachelors—Maude Leadworth and Hilda Anthony.
At the Box Office—Naomi Kirtley.
Jimmie's Prompt Obedience—Leona Newlin.
Cupid in the Caddis—Ethel Wright.
Mother Goose—Maude Leadworth.
Vocal Solo—Professor Arant.
Uncle Peter and the Trolley Car—Serena Rohan.
A Little Friend in the Mirror—Dorothy Meyers.
Her First Recital—Nora Arbuckle.
Bud's Fairy Tale—Alice Hill.
The Love of Bernice—Hilda Anthony.

The program at the Lyle Tuesday Musical last Tuesday afternoon was an excellent one. It was given under the direction of Mrs. W. W. Berry. The following numbers were rendered:

Piano Solo—"Pierrot"—Arthur Foote.
Mrs. G. S. Birnie.
Vocal Solo—"With Thoughts of You"—Mrs. McGulre.
Spore.
Violin and Piano Duo—Shubert.
Miss Young and Mrs. Birnie.
Vocal Solo—"Irish Love Song"—Lang.
"My Garden of Roses"—Clark.
Mrs. T. J. Scroggin.
Piano Solo—"Oh, Promise Me"—De Koon.
Mrs. W. W. Berry.

Mrs. G. M. Birnie and Mrs. Claire Scriber will have charge of the next meeting to be held on April 9th. The subject for study will be Musical Farm.

April second is the annual social day of the Neighborhood club. This meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. F. A. Holmes on Fourth street. The members of the club are requested to come and also to bring a guest. The afternoon will be informal—no musical program has been arranged by the committee. The hours are from 2 o'clock until 5. The committee in charge is: Mrs. E. J. Holmes, Mrs. M. B. Donohue, Mrs. J. S. Richardson, Mrs. H. J. Ritter, Mrs. F. M. Jackson, Mrs. J. W. McAllister.

Miss Hazel Theisen entertained a number of young ladies at her home Thursday evening; sewing occupied their attention until a late hour. A delicious two-course luncheon climaxed the evening. Those present were: May Nell, Gladys Oesterling, Mary Penington, Runa Bacon, Miriam Smith, Olive Massee, Pauline Newton.

Mrs. A. W. Nelson entertained the Billiken club and invited guests on Thursday afternoon. Those present were: Mrs. Fred Dittbrandt, Mrs. Oscar Jackson, Mrs. Jim Snodgrass, Mrs. Lloyd Scriber, Mrs. Harvey Bay, Mrs. Herman Siegrist, and Mrs. Richard Duignan.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Dittbrandt were host and hostess to the Pinole club this week, and Mrs. Frank Bay won the favors. Mr. and Mrs. Jay Van Buren were special guests of the evening.

Monday evening Mrs. C. M. Lockwood informally entertained a few friends at cards. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Laughlin, Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Love, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Wade and Mr. and Mrs. Lockwood.

The Decum club met with Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Andrews this week. Mrs.
