BIG BANQUET SERVED IN THE IMBLER HALL.

Big Power Plow Turning Over 12 Acres of Land Every Day.

Imbler, Ore., April 5.—(Special)—The Farmers' union held a special meeting at Imbler yesterday and gave a free banquet to a large crowd. It is the last feed of this kind that can be held in the "Bon Ton" hall, because the Farmers' Co-Operative store will occupy the big building for an implement house hereafter.

The only power plow in operation in the Imbler district is doing great work and is turning over as high as 50 acres per day.

Tomorrow night the registration books will be brought down town again. They are closed Tuesday until after the primary election.
