The Store That Satisfies

"PRINCE" WINS HONORS.

Bull Terrier Owned by George M. Hibberd Carries Off Prizes.

Two first prizes, and one special first prize and a special prize certificate were won by "Prince"—the beautiful canine, owned by George M. Hibberd when he was located in La Grande—in the Seattle bench show recently concluded. The dog is well known to La Grande people.

Mr. and Mrs. Hibberd, according to letters received by Mrs. Perry Oliver, placed the dog on show more as an experiment as the animal is still young, and since winning the many honors the cash value of Prince has leaped to $300 and over.
