FIRST CONGRESS OF CHRISTIANS

New York, April 19.—What is said to be the first really national general Christian congress ever held by the laymen of America was formally opened in this city today and will continue for one week. The congress is the climax of the nine months' campaign of the Me. and Religion Forward movement that has swept over the United States and Canada. Reports of the campaign from every section will be a leading feature of the gathering.

The general sessions of the congress are to be held in Carnegie hall, with auxiliary meetings in neighboring churches. The program calls for the presentation and discussion of carefully prepared reports on "Immigration," "The Negro Problem," "The Church and the Newspaper," "The Boy Problem," "Christian Unity," "The Rural Church," "Bible Study," "Evangelism," and "The Unsolved Problems of the Christianization of the World."

President Taft, Ambassador Bryce and William J. Bryan have accepted invitations to address the congress. Other lay speaker of prominence will include John Mitchell, former Governor Northern of Georgia, J. A. MacDonald of Toronto, Booker T. Washington, Robert E. Speer and John R. Mott. Among the clergymen who will address the congress will be Bishop Greer of New York, Bishop McDowell of Chicago, Dr. R. C. Gray of Gallego and Archdeacon Madden of Liverpool. The only woman who will appear on the platform as a speaker will be Miss Jane Addams, the famous Chicago sociologist and settlement worker.

A great parade of delegates, augmented by special delegations from New York and neighboring cities, is to be held tomorrow afternoon. The men's parade will be followed by one of older boys.
