

JUST ONCE IN A WHILE An Opportunity Like This

280 Acres of deed land of which 100 acres is in hay and grain. Four springs that are constant. Fenced.
160 Acres adjoining this farm can be homesteaded, fine bunch grass land, quite level.
120 Acres adjoining on the other side can be isolated. Good grass.

$3931.00

560 Acres all told that combined would make an all around farm. Situated on one of the main county roads which is good 11 months in the year. Note the price.
The 160 acres will cost you about $25 for land office fees. The 120 acres that can be isolated will cost $150, and the original farm of 280 acres will cost $3750, making a total of $3931.00. Here is a chance for some energetic man to lay the foundation for an independent life and an annually increasing bank account. You had better call at the office for details.

FILM'S TITLE

MANAGER GEORGE ANNOUNCES ATTRACTION.

Special Film to Be Run Next Monday and Tuesday at the Arcade.

Manager George announces the following details of the film his house will feature next Monday and Tuesday:

Having had the two previous pictures, one taken in 1910 and 1911, we take pleasure in announcing to the public that we have secured the release of 1912 showing the work at the present time. It is a splendid picture of this great undertaking, the greatest engineering feat in the world and a work in which nearly every one is interested. In viewing this film one is struck by the splendid system, in thorough working order, that prevails over the entire stretch. Ponderous machines and tiny men work in harmony that enables one to look forward confidently to the time when the great work will be finished. As the film shows the canal, one makes the journey from the Pacific coast to the Atlantic. The Miraflores locks are first viewed. They are situated about eight miles from deep water in the Pacific and are 54 2-3 feet above the level of the ocean. Through these locks vessels will be lowered to the level of the Pacific. About 1 1-2 miles east of the Miraflores locks are the Pedro Miguel locks, which have a lift of 30 1-2 feet. A good view of the operations are given in the film. Here we see the gigantic cranes used in carrying rock and sand to the cement and cement from the mixer to the dumping spot on the foundation of the locks. The Pedro Miguel locks will be the first point of descent to the Pacific ocean made by vessels after passing through Culebra cut the drop will be 30 1-2 feet. The famous Culebra cut is the important work shown in the film on the journey to the east. Here we see the numerous drills at work boring holes for blasting purposes. Then huge steam shovels are seen scooping up the debris and depositing it on flat cars which convey it to the dumping ground. Here are shown the new devices for taking the dirt off the car. A fine panorama of the Culebra Cut is next given. The total length is nine miles. The distance across the cut at the widest part is about 2000 feet and the greatest depth is 480 feet. The width at the bottom is 300 feet. Next we arrive at the great Gatun locks, and dam showing views of the great machinery, next a panoramic view of the Gatun lake. The Gatun locks raise the vessel coming from the Atlantic 85 feet to the level of the Gatun lake. This lake when completed will have an area of 164 square miles. This level is necessary to carry vessels through the Culebra Cut. The Gatun locks are built in three flights and in order to prevent delays, each lock is duplicated, there being six locks at Gatun. The entrance to the canal on the Atlantic side is through Limon bay, where a channel 500 feet wide and 41 feet deep is being constructed at Gatun. The total length of the canal from deep water in the Atlantic to deep water in the Pacific is 50 1/2 miles and from shore line to shore line about 41 1/2 miles. The estimated cost of the canal when completed—which is expected to take place January 1, 1915, is $375,000,000. We will show this great picture for two days, April 29th and 30th.
