"TAKING THE RISK"

A man said to an Idaho State Life agent the other day when insurance was offered him for the protection of his wife and children, "I'll take the risk." Have you ever heard a man say that, and if you have, didn't it make you mad? He take the risk, indeed! It's the wife and little ones, who have a right to look to him for SURE protection, who take the risk. And he is superlatively selfish and mean to make them do it. The only risk that a dying man takes is of future torment and the Insurance Company wont insure against that.

THE IDAHO STATE LIFE insures against a loss that is certain to occur, and just remember when a life agent comes to you, that you will some day be dead. The only uncertain thing about life is when it will end. There is one dead sure thing about it, though, and that is that when you die if your assets are less than your liabilities, and you are not insured, somebody is going to suffer. You can't insure against death, but you can insure against some of the effects of it. Another thing, with a TWENTY PAYMENT LIFE or a TWENTY YEAR ENDOWMENT you are only laying away a little each year against old age, and getting the insurance besides.
