SELLS-FLOTO ON WAY TO CITY

FRIDAY, JUNE 7, DAY OF ITS COMING.

Bigger, More Attractive, Are the General Conditions.

William E. Haines, general contracting agent of the Sells-Floto circus, is in town today, and announces that the big show will arrive here on Friday, June 7th. Before leaving the city, Mr. Haines will close up the various contracts and make all the arrangements which are necessary before the coming of a great circus.

Mr. Haines states that the show comes back greatly enlarged and beautified in many respects, and that so far this season it has met with phenomenal success in all the large cities of the coast and southwest, where he has been playing since the opening of the season on April 1.

This is the 12th consecutive year that Sells-Floto circus has been on the road, and it can truthfully be said that these people have always lived up to their promises and left an enviable reputation behind them. It will be remembered that they are the pioneers of popular prices, and still maintain the 25 cent general admission rate which was inaugurated by them with such success three years ago.
