CLUB PROVIDED WITH A HOME

FIFTH FLOOR OF FOLEY BUILDING LEASED.

A. B. Cherry Named Secretary of the Commercial Club Last Night.

Three year lease contracts for the fifth or top floor of the Foley building were successfully negotiated last evening when the directors of the Commercial club took up the matter with the builders. The entire fifth floor will be at the disposal of the club and as Mr. Foley in turn has a contract with his contractors to have the big skyscraper completed this fall, the club directors can have a three year and probably permanent home for the membership by Christmas at the very latest.

Cherry Is Secretary.
To fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Secretary J. T. Williamson, handed to the directors at the last meeting A. B. Cherry was elected.

Will Arrange Exhibits.
A matter that was given consideration last night was the collection of fruits and exhibits, in which the jars used for several years ago when an exhibit was maintained, will be resurrected and put to use. The directors will maintain an exhibit of some sort, thought the finer details must be worked out as conditions develop. Because there will be train after train of Elks and other coast visitors through the city this summer an exhibit will be greatly needed, in fact, it is apparent that La Grande must do something as a community to entertain the special trains of Elks if she would not be outdone by other towns along the main line.

SUBURBANS IN FINE PROGRAM

MANY TURNED AWAY FROM THE SCHOOL FUNCTION.

Excellent Affair Arranged and Carried Out by Schools.

The Island City school gave its closing program last night. By eight o'clock the church was packed to the doors. Every available space was taken and standing room was at a premium. Several went back home disappointed because they could find no room. But for those who could find a place to sit or stand the program far exceeded their expectations. Many who came from La Grande went home praising the work done by the students.

The curtains were just nicely out of the way when a chorus of the boys and girls from the primary room burst forth in a rollicking song. When the curtains were again drawn the size of students had changed and girls of the fourth and fifth grades sang a very pleasing chorus. Following this ten boys produced a dialogue, which brought a smile to many of the audience, "When I'm a Man."

After a few minutes intermission, the curtain was again drawn on an office scene. Mrs. J. F. Shortstop, secretary of the "Great Doughnut Corporation", was seated at his desk. In a remarkably short time thousands of shares of stock were sold. A customer broke her tooth on a sample doughnut, another went off angry and finally Sairy Redtop who had invested ten dollars came in. Needless to say, the scene closed after some quick moving with Sairy, armed with an umbrella, in power.

The closing number was a cantata, "The Festival of Flowers." The work of these girls was splendid as by speech and song they expressed the true attitude of the flowers to man and God. Nellie Storey as Rose carried the leading part in a wonderful manner. Lucia Tilton as Hollyhock and Nita Hunter as Crysanthemum also deserve special mention for their solo work. It was a splendid chorus of girls.

Island City school has had a most successful year under a splendid corps of teachers, and this program proved to be a fitting close of the work done.

E. E. Arant left last night for his home in Monmouth, Miss Bailey and Miss Spencer left this morning for Elgin and Miss Crouter leaves today for her home in Union. "We shall miss them at the Island but we do wish them a splendid time during their vacation," said an Island City resident today.
