

MEMORIAL DAY SERMON AT 11

G. A. R. AND W. R. C. TO ATTEND
IN BODY

Decoration Day Program Will Be Announced Later on

Tomorrow is Memorial Sunday. Services have been rather hastily arranged for the occasion and but little publicity given to the morning memorial meeting now scheduled for 11 o'clock. Rev. E. P. Borden of the Baptist church will deliver the address and all officers of the G. A. R. and W. R. C. are urging all members of the two organizations and their friends to attend the services. The veterans will meet at the Baptist church and sit in a body.

Only short notice could be given and the veterans decided to conduct the services during the regular morning church service hour. The decoration day details will be announced later. Other church announcements for tomorrow are:

SOCIETY.

Mrs. C. H. Finn and Mrs. Robert Newlin entertain at cards Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons in the first continuous social function in several years. Guests occupied nine tables on each of the two days and similar prizes, similar refreshments, similar decorations prevailed on both occasions. The event was really the biggest social undertaking of the spring and as fashionable as the best. A pretty arrangement of colors centering around the lilac had been conceived by the hostess—not only in the decoration of the Finn home where the two day party was held, but in the refreshments of the dainties sort the same general scheme of colors was carried to a successful point. The winners on Tuesday were: First, Mrs. Bohnenkamp; consolation, Mrs. Wm. Allinson. On Wednesday, first Mrs. T. N. Murphy, Mrs. J. B. Wade, consolation. Pretty cut glass pieces made up the elegant prizes. The two days were very enjoyably spent and of the big parties of the year none could be said to excel this novel "marathon" function.

Two big card functions were on the society slate this week. Mrs. J. E. Foley and Mrs. R. W. Loughlin entertained at cards yesterday afternoon to 72 guests and the afternoon with the Finn-Newlin party, ranks as the two largest social gatherings in several weeks. Dainty refreshments were served and the Foley home was beautifully decorated. Honors were won by Mrs. Stringer, first; Mrs. W. H. Bohnenkamp, second and Mrs. Gene Moore third. The hostesses were showered with congratulations for the beautiful manner in which the afternoon was arranged in its smallest detail.

The Lyle Tuesday Musicals held its closing session last Tuesday afternoon. The meeting was of great interest and importance. The question of remaining an independent organization instead of becoming a department of the Neighborhood club was voted upon and carried by a ballot of 18 to three. Much enthusiasm was shown in arranging new plans for the coming year. An evening program, open to the public, will be given once a month in Honan hall. The best ability in La Grande, both ladies and gentlemen, in all branches of music, will be identified with it. An afternoon for study will also occur once a month. Sometime, within the very near future, the ladies expect to give an open air concert at the home of Mrs. T. J. Scroggin on Fourth street. Excellent music will be given from the veranda and refreshments served on the lawn. This affair will be strictly informal and for the entertainment of the public in general. Further details will be given in a few days.

The last meeting of the Neighborhood club will be held Tuesday, May 28th, at the club rooms in Honan hall. There will be no program. The committees of the different lines of work are requested to give a final report. The treasurer, Mrs. Williamson, will give a report of finances of the club. This is annual election day. Mrs. J. D. Stout as president of the club requests that all members be present at this meeting.

Next Wednesday evening the Millem girls will be hostesses again to their friends at dancing. Invitations will be out during the next day or two and the evening promises to carry with it the usual number of splendid dances that the Millems know so well how to arrange. While it is not a shirtwaist party no ban will fall against gentlemen dancing without their coats if the evening should happen to be warm.

Wednesday evening some fifty odd couples of dancers were guests of the Sodality club and highly delighted guests they were. The Sodality made its debut as a club, on that occasion and more will probably be seen of the young ladies' organization hereafter. Patronesses for the evening were Mrs. J. F. Corbett, Mrs. Elizabeth Donnelly and Mrs. Julia Barbeau.

The Millem club did not meet this week but instead enjoyed a picnic to Blackflat last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Dittbrandt entertain the Placida club next Tuesday.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only Constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.
