RAIN SPOILS SHOOT.

Small Scores Made When Wind Blows and Rain Falls Yesterday.

The Gun club members who went to the new range and used the new Legget traps yesterday found that small scores was the best that could be done. A few tied at 18 birds out of 25, but on the whole, the day was not well suited for shooting. Among the higher scores were: Kiddle 18, out of a possible 25, Mackey 18, Crowe 16, Carr 15, Lewis 18, Stageberg 15.

DOCTORS WILL GIVE TESTIMONY

MOATS INSURANCE CASE IS UP TODAY.

Several Physicians to Be Heard Before Federal Court at Pendleton.

Several physicians left this morning for Pendleton where they will give expert testimony in the Moats insurance case before a branch of the federal court. The litigation involves the death of Mr. Moats of Summerville shortly after he had taken out a $10,000 insurance policy. Drs. N. Mollitor, J. W. Loughlin, H. L. Underwood and Ray W. Logan. The men will probably return tomorrow as it is planned to hear their testimony in the case today.

AT SHERRY'S.

Thirteen hundred people filed through the doors of Sherry's splendid theatre Saturday night and again last evening a big set of audiences witnessed the program. Compliments have been showered on the theatre manager for the tone and style everywhere visible in the new theatre. C. E. Cochran made informal but appropriate speeches at the opening of each performance Saturday night and while the house was filled to capacity three times and probably as many more tried to gain entrance to the place. Manager Sherwood announces a stirring program for his brand new house tonight that is a mixture of good comedy and excellent drama. Read the house program for particulars; the numbers are good. It is the general opinion of the hundreds who enjoyed the comforts of the theatre that there is no better house of its kind in the state.
