SHAKEN TO THE STAGE

AUTHOR OF "CAMPUS" HAD QUEER START.

Ferlie Hartman Took Walter De Leon in Tow Recently.

"Maybe you've read something about the little fire and earthquake we had in San Francisco a few years ago," said Walter De Leon, the author and composer of "The Campus," which comes to the Steward Friday night. "If it hadn't been for that I probably would have been interviewing somebody else instead of trying to live up to a press agent's stories. I was still a student at the University of California when the little disturbance occurred. When we all got back to earth again and my family started to take stock I found it was necessary for me to go to work. I tried the ed: You and each of you are hereby notified to be and appear in the above entitled court and answer the complaint therein filed against in the above entitled suit within six weeks from the date of the first publication of this summons; And defendants will take notice that if they fail so to appear and answer the plaintiff will, for want thereof, apply to the court for the relief demanded in the complaint, to-wit, that plaintiff be decreed to be the owner in fee and entitled to the possession of the real estate described in the complaint, to-wit: Lots eleven, twelve and thirteen in block two of Predmore addition to the Town of La Grande, Union county, Oregon, and that plaintiff's title thereto be quieted. This summons is published by virtue of an order of the circuit court of the state of Oregon, of Union county, of date February 6th, A. D. 1912, directing publication thereof in the La Grande Evening Observer once each week for six consecutive weeks and the first publication of this summons is on the 16th day of April, A. D. 1912.

Order Directing Citation.

In the county court of the state of Oregon, for Union county. In the matter of the estate of Norman Pentecost, deceased. It appearing to this court, by the petition this day presented and filed by Clara Pentecost, the administratrix of the estate of Norman Pentecost, deceased, that it is necessary to sell the whole or some portion of the real estate, to-wit: Commencing at the northeast corner of the northeast quarter of the southwest quarter of section twenty-six (26) township one north of range thirty-eight (38) east of the Willamette Meridian, thence running west forty-nine (49) rods, thence running south forty-nine (49) rods; thence running east forty-nine (49) rods, thence running north forty-nine (49) rods to the point of beginning.

It is ordered that all persons interested in said estate appear before this court on Monday, the 3rd day of June, 1912, at the hour of nine o'clock a. m. of that day, in the courtroom of said court at the court house in the city of La Grande, Union county, Oregon to show cause why an order should not be granted said administratrix to sell so much of the said real estate, at private sale, as shall be necessary; and it is further ordered that a copy of this order be published for successive weeks next preceding said day in the La Grande Evening Observer, a newspaper printed and published in said county. Dated, April 26 1912.

J. C. HENRY, County Judge.

newspaper game, but there were eight million experienced newspaper men out of a job and so I turned to real estate. That was some business. After working like a dog for two weeks I discovered that I had earned $9.58. The work was interesting all right, but I had to eat, so I went to see Ferlie Hartman. He needed a man to carry an umbrella on the stage in one act and I was the only man he could find who would take the salary he wanted to pay. "That settled it. The next week I carried a spear and the week after that I carried a musket. You see I kept advancing all the time."
