

TWILIGHT LEAGUE URGED.
Various clubs would cooperate in the formation of a twilight league with a half dozen teams, worked under the direction of a president, secretary and board of directors, being discussed with much favor. There would be ready timber for six clubs in such a league and for a 10 or 15 cent admission could furnish an abundance of sports for the twilight hours. The two banks could readily form one, the clergy another, printers one, the O-W. machinists, union one.

the automobile dealers and repairers, other local athletic clubs and so on. Such a league is being heard on every hand for such a club, and the immediate organization of such a league is being urged. The O-W. machinists, union one.

SPALDING
Superior quality always recognized. No only the National League but the majority of all other leagues, colleges and schools throughout the United States have adopted the Spalding brand.

Nimrods to Hear Baker's Invitation Discussed Tomorrow
The club meet tomorrow on the new course to be played by the club members. Baker's invitation to come there is a warm one and should go far towards cementing the interests of both cities in the blue rock line.

Penk's Clubs Formed.
The club members of the Penk's clubs are getting into form. Several new clubs are being formed and it is the wish of many that tournaments be held in the close of the season. Among the school and college students some of the player are to be found and each afternoon "snappy" games are played on the courts now completed.

Two rounded bouts to a draw with Champion Johnny Kilbane marked to the credit of Jimmy Walsh.
