Thursday has been designated as La Grande day at the Union stock show. Get out your summer bonnet and shine your shoes.

Adams avenue in the vicinity of the Foley hotel is lined with brick on either side. On one side the federal building is getting in material and apparently means to proceed with the construction of the building, while on the new five story Foley office building material is collecting in large quantities.

Something in soda water drinks today, such as Kelly makes at Silverthorn's fountain.

Saturday is a hoodoo day to collectors and most of the boys who go out and get the money duck the work until the following Monday, which is generally admitted to be the proper thing.

WM. C. HANSEN.
Contractor. Brick, Stone and Concrete.

N. K. West's Clydesdale stallion was shown on the streets today and he attracted much attention. The consensus of opinion is that he is a remarkable animal.

DR. DARLAND, the chiropractor. All diseases. Not drugs, surgery or osteopathy. La Grande National Bank Building. Red 3181.

Just what Oriental will be elevated to the House of Hong Tuck is not yet known and the China colony is undergoing some inward excitement in choosing a leader to take the place of the pioneer Chinaman who died this week.

Society and Clubs

Arrangements for the floral degree and emblematic floor drill by Esther chapter, O. E. S., of Baker, to be held in Portland at the grand chapter, June 12, are complete.

Everything is in good shape for the occasion and the team will do credit to Eastern Oregon. The dresses are dainty white net, trimmed in cluny edging, worn over mesaline of the same color; white shoes will be worn, and corsage bouquet of pink roses. Each lady will carry a 20 inch triangle, wrapped in white and ornamented at one point with small cluster of pink roses. The ladies composing the Baker drill team are:

Misses Callie Shelton, Lillian Miller, Maud Langrell, Jennie Cunniff, Marie Trueblood, Minnie Armstrong, Francis Lambert, Mary Gillynberg; Mesdames Elsie Mounf, Emman Kennon, Sadie Stern, Mattie Brown, Jennie Landis, Gardner, Waterman and Dodson.

They will be accompanied to Portland by the worthy matron, Mrs. Clara S. Langrell, Worthy Patron Kennon, Mrs. Hattie Barton secretary, Mrs. Maud West, Grand Adah, Past Patrons Earl West and Robert McGaughey, and several other members of the order. This being the home chapter of the Worthy Grand Matron, Mrs. Pauline Moore Riley, much interest is centered in their work. Music will be furnished by Miss Wilma Rinehart, formerly of La Grande but now living in Portland. The work is wholly original and the last rehearsal, which was a dress rehearsal, was held at Baker Friday evening, May 31. The La Grande chapter handled this department last year.

Wednesday night the young people of the Methodist church held an open social. Nearly a hundred took advantage of this invitation and all reported a good time. The following program was pleasingly rendered, after which games and refreshments were enjoyed by all.

Recitation—Mildred Bush.
Instrumental Duet—Bernice and Enid Stanchfield.
Piano Solo—Margaret Moore.
Reading—Naomi Kirtley.
Solo—Glenn Conkey.
Solo—Ona Richardson.
Reading—James Corpe.
Solo—Olive Massee.
Reading—Christine Wheatley.
Piano Solo—Robert Alkine.

Last evening at the L. D. S. church an informal entertainment was given in honor of three young men lately back from missionary journeys. Elmer and Earl Stoddard and Hiram Wilson. During the evening Elmer Stoddard gave a talk on Germany and sang amusing German songs. Earl Stoddard gave a delightful outline of his tour through Scotland while Mr. Wilson gave an informal address on his work in the state of Arkansas. At a late hour refreshments were served to the large crowd in attendance. All report a delightful evening.

Miss Mildred Cook, Miss Irene Murphy, Miss Lena Jones, Miss Etta Foley, Miss May White and Miss Marjorie McCall, known collectively as the Milemm girls, (an extra M for Miss McCall), entertained the middle of the week at dancing at the Elks' auditorium. The party was informal, was attended by about 50 couples and was signalized by delightful entertainment for all the guests.

Mrs. W. W. Hendershott and daughter Fay of Portland are visiting with her sister, Mrs. J. S. Clark of this city. Mrs. Hendershott last visited La Grande in 1887 and she sees many changes throughout the city. Mrs. Hendershott expects to visit with friends in Walla Walla before returning to her home in Portland.

One of the smart affairs of the week was the 500 party given by the Milemm girls at the home of Miss Irene Murphy Friday evening. The beautiful rooms were enhanced in attractiveness by artistic groupings of flowers and foliage. Miss Mildred Cook, for whom the party was given as a farewell and surprise, leaves Monday for her home in the far east. She has endeared herself to all by her charming personality and gracious manners and will be greatly missed in society circles. Misses McCall and Grimmer, tied for first honors at cards and the former was fortunate in cutting Leo Herring won the gentleman's prize. Norman Desilet was handed a lemon (why?) A delicious luncheon was served, consisting of two courses. Miss Cook was given a beautiful parting gift, a silver vanity purse with the usual equipment. The affair will be long remembered. At a late hour the guests departed thanking these gracious girls for a most happy evening. It was a pleasant privilege to thus honor Miss Cook. Guests of the evening were Misses Nell Grimmer, Ruth Russell, Zada Haney, Bell Campbell, Mildred Cook, Etta Foley, May White, Marjorie McCall, Lena Jones and Ireen Murphy; Messers. French, Couch, Green, Henning, Campbell, Desilet, Herring, Francis and Ramsey.

Friday evening the Alert Class of the Island City Sunday school met at the home of Blanche Clark for their monthly business meeting and social. A goodly number of the members were present, and enjoyed a most delightful evening spent at playing various games and in getting better acquainted. After delicious refreshments of strawberries and cake had been fully enjoyed and the hour was growing late all disbanded for their homes.

Mrs. Colon R. Eberhard has been the motif of several social afternoons at Joseph this week. She is a guest there with her parents. Mr. Eberhard who spent several days there earlier in the week, has returned.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Berry entertained the evening Kaffee Klatch on Friday. Mrs. T. J. Scroggins won the ladies' first prize and Mr. Van Vuren the gentlemen's first prize. This was the last meeting of the club for this season.

Mr. and Mrs. Mrs. Fred Dittbrandt entertained the members of the Pinocle club and a few invited guests last Tuesday evening. Honors were won by L. L. Snodgrass.

Mrs. William Miller entertained in honor of Mrs. Eakin, wife of Judge Eakin of Salem, Wednesday of this week. Mrs. Eakin is visiting with her old friends in La Grande.

The Bonny Brae society of the Presbyterian church gave a social at the home of Mrs. Joseph Richardson Wednesday afternoon of this week.

The Women's Foreign Missionary society of the Methodist church gave a social at the home of Mrs. E. W. Kammerer on Friday.

The Five Hundred club met with Mrs. J. C. Gulling this week. Mrs. Bohnenkamp won first honors.

THURSDAY WILL BE LA GRANDE DAY

According to a message received from the managers of the Union Live Stock show Thursday has been designated as La Grande day and the Union people will exert every effort to entertain La Grande people on that date.

At present all preliminaries have been arranged for the big show and the community of Union is merely killing time until the hour for formally opening the gates occurs. It is to be the biggest event of the kind in Oregon. It will rival the state fair in live stock and besides the exhibition of stock there will be many features to entertain the people.

Buffalo Vernon will bulldog the steer and pull off other Roundup features during the show. Indications are that the crowd is to be larger than ever this year. Billy Vogel and Mayor Withycombe returned to Union yesterday after spending a few days in Pendleton advertising the show and stated that Pendleton people had promised a good sized delegation.
