NEW MAXWELL ROADSTER HERE

MR. ECCLES HAS MAXWELL ROAD CAR THAT ATTRACTS

Trimmed in Nickle and Carries All Latest Improvements Known.

Today R. W. Leighton, local agent for the Maxwell car, is demonstrating a new roadster machine of the $1,290 class which is the property of Mr. Eccles and has just arrived. It is trimmed in nickle with gray body and black hood. The car is made to handle itself on all occasions for roadster work and is considered one of the high grade types of the roadster class.

Fitted with the 30 engine and carrying every improvement known to the auto makers' art, Mr. Eccles feels that he has just the car he has been looking for. It will be at the Leighton garage for a few days where demonstrations will be made.

"June Week" at Annapolis.

Annapolis, Md., June 3.—Annapolis is in a gay and festive mood for the celebration of "June week" at the naval academy, the period during which the board of visitors appears and when the class whose members have completed the four year course is graduated. The vanguard of the expected throng reached Annapolis Saturday. Other visitors are coming in on every train, and by tomorrow morning the city will be crowded. The exercises of the week began this morning with the official reception to the board of visitors, and will end with the farewell ball Friday night. The reception took place on Worthen field, and the brigade of midshipmen, headed by the academy band, did the honors. Immediately following the reception an infantry drill by the brigade took place, followed with an inspection of the several departments at the academy, under the guidance of the naval officers on duty. This afternoon Captain John N. Gibbons, superintendent of the academy, tendered a reception to the official party at his quarters in Blake row.
