Physicians Gather in Atlantic City.

Atlantic City, N. J., June 3.—Noted physicians from every part of the United States and Canada, with a number from European countries, are coming into this resort by the hundreds today to take part in the 63rd annual meeting of the American Medical association, which is to begin its sessions here tomorrow. Many famous medical authorities will take part in the general sessions and the numerous sectional conferences, and in consequence a week of splendid scientific work is anticipated. One of the most important features of the week will be a three day conference for the discussion of health problems in modern industry and the best methods for stamping out industrial diseases.

Last of Newark Lynching Casts.

Newark, O., June 3.—Considerable interest is manifested in the trial of S. A. Hollar, which is to take place this week in the Licking county circuit court. This is the last of the cases resulting from the lynching of Carl Etherington, the alleged anti-slavery detective, who was taken from the Newark jail and hanged by a mob on July 8, 1910. A number of the alleged lynchers pleaded guilty and were given prison sentences. Hollar, an alleged leader of the mob, fled from Newark and escaped arrest until found in Chicago several months ago. He is to be tried on an indictment charging first degree murder.

The King's Birthday.

London, June 3.—Today was the 47th birthday anniversary of King George, who was born in Marlborough House, June 3, 1865. His majesty spent the day quietly with his family. During the forenoon the members of the diplomatic corps called at the palace and left messages of congratulations in behalf of their respective sovereigns. The anniversary was celebrated in the customary manner today at all naval and military stations throughout the empire. In London and at all home stations, however, the official observance of the anniversary will not take place until June 14.

Rogers Buys Confectionery.

Adna B. Rogers has purchased the confectionery on Fir street next to Stageberg's grocery and will at once put in a new front and install a first class bakery and confectionery. Mr. Rogers has had a great deal of experience in catering to the public and will run a first class place. La Grande has felt the need of a first class bakery for some time, especially in this location and Mr. Rogers purposes running one that will attract trade from all parts of the city.

Battlefield Monument Dedicated.

Chattanooga, Tenn., June 3.—The monument erected on the Chickamauga battlefield in memory of the Alabama soldier who participated in the historic conflict was dedicated today with impressive exercises conducted by the Ladies' Memorial association and other patriotic organizations. The monument, which was designed by E. C. Hanage, is located on the firing line, a spot which was held by the confederate soldiers from Alabama during the great battle.
