POLITICS AND POLITICIANS

A. R. Maxwell of the Lawton News and Guthrie Star, a personal friend of Colonel Roosevelt, has entered the race for congressman at large from Oklahoma.

Iowa Prohibitionists will meet in state convention in Cedar Rapids on July 30 to make nominations to fill out the state ticket and adopt a platform.

William S. Cowherd, for many years a prominent member of the national house of representatives, is making a hard fight for the democratic nomination for governor of Missouri.

The committee in charge of arrangements for the democratic national convention at Baltimore this month has decided that the only portraits to be included in the convention hall decorations will be those of Washington, Jefferson and Jackson.

Henry Allen Cooper, who has represented the First district of Wisconsin in the lower house since 1893, is mentioned for second place on the republican national ticket in the event that Roosevelt is nominated for president.

In the opinion of veteran political observers the uninstructed delegates will probably determine the result of the Baltimore convention, and the actual strength of the several candidates for the president nomination will probably not be known until the first ballot.

The Champ Clark supporters are talking of Congressman William C. Redfield of the Fifth New York district, for vice president on their ticket. Mr. Redfield is a resident of Brooklyn and the head of a large manufacturing concern. He is now serving his first term in congress.

"At Home With the Kodak" is the title of an illustrated and clearly written little book that the Kodak people have issued on home portraiture.

Whether you have a camera or not we will be glad to give you a copy. Drop us a postal, or if convenient, call at the store.
